Extract from act of Congress of February 20, 1907, creating and defining the duties of the Immigration Commission.

That a commission is hereby created, consisting of three Senators, to be appointed by the President of the Senate, and three Members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and three persons to be appointed by the President of the United States. Said commission shall make full inquiry, examination, and investigation, by subcommittee or otherwise, into the subject of immigration. For the purpose of said inquiry, examination, and investigation said commission is authorized to send for persons and papers, make all necessary travel, either in the United States or any foreign country, and, through the chairman of the commission, or any member thereof, to administer oaths and to examine witnesses and papers respecting all matters pertaining to the subject, and to employ necessary clerical and other assistance. Said commission shall report to Congress the conclusions reached by it, and make such recommendations as in its judgment may seem proper. Such sums of money as may be necessary for the said inquiry, examination, and investigation are hereby appropriated and authorized to be paid out of the "immigrant fund" on the certificate of the chairman of said commission, including all expenses of the commissioners, and a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the President of the United States, for those members of the commission who are not Members of Congress; * * * .

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

THE IMMIGRATION COMMISSION,
Washington, D. C., December 5, 1910.

To the Sixty-first Congress:

I have the honor to transmit herewith, on behalf of the Immigration Commission, a report in two volumes, entitled "Immigrants as Charity Seekers." This inquiry was conducted with the assistance of Mr. Francis H. McLean, Field Secretary of the Field Department for the Extension of Organized Charity in the United States, and the field work was superintended and the report prepared by Jessie C. Lloyd, special agent of the Immigration Commission.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM,
Chairman.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

IMMIGRANTS AS CHARITY SEEKERS.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

METHOD AND SCOPE OF THE INVESTIGATION.

In order to determine to what extent immigrants are the recipients of charity, the Immigration Commission planned an extensive investigation covering this phase of the immigration question. In addition to the original investigation the Commission has compiled existing federal statistics relative to immigrants and pauperism. This compilation consists of statistics from the United States Bureau of the Census and the United States Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, covering the period from 1850 to 1908.[a]

In outlining this investigation it would have been highly desirable to secure information not only from organized city charity societies, but also from societies which confine their efforts to relieving the poverty of specific races, and from societies which are organized within the churches for the purpose of looking after the poor. To conduct such an investigation even in a few cities would be almost impossible, and the Commission therefore decided that, in addition to securing general information relative to charitable assistance received by immigrants in the industrial communities selected for study, it would undertake to secure data relative to aid furnished immigrants during a certain period by the charity organizations of a considerable number of cities.

The matter was thoroughly discussed with Mr. Francis H. McLean, Field Secretary of the Field Department for the Extension of Organized Charity in the United States, and a plan was devised to secure this information by preparing a suitable blank form which should be furnished the charity societies of the various cities selected for study.

A schedule or form was drafted, on which information was to be entered for each member of the family at home for each case, native or foreign born, receiving assistance during a period of six months, from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909. The report for Boston, Massachusetts, however, includes only the new cases assisted during this period. The information required for each case was apparent cause of need and aid given, and for each individual was race, sex, age, conjugal condition, occupation, and country of birth, and for the foreign-born individuals the additional information of years in the United States, ability to speak English, and political condition. No account was made of a case unless some assistance was given. The information required was entered on this schedule by an employee of the society, usually the registrar, and for this service a small payment was made by the Commission. A representative of the Commission visited these societies, with the exception of those in the far West, giving instructions as to the use of the schedule. Mr. McLean was of the greatest assistance to the Commission both in arranging for securing the desired information from the various societies and in assisting in preparing the blank form.

The schedule or form used in collecting the information and the instructions which were printed on the back of each schedule are shown on pages 393 to 395.

In addition to the instructions printed on the back of each schedule personal instructions relative to filling the forms were given by an agent of the Commission, as has been already stated. After the filled schedules were returned to the Commission they were closely examined, and when necessary the slips were returned to the societies for further information or for corrections.

The study of immigrants as charity seekers made by the Immigration Commission includes the work done by the charity organization societies during the six months from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909, in 43 cities. The cities are—

Atlanta, Ga.
Baltimore, Md.
Bloomington, Ill.
Boston, Mass.
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Buffalo, N. Y.
Chicago, Ill.
Cincinnati, Ohio.
Cleveland, Ohio.
Columbus, Ohio.
Dayton, Ohio.
Denver, Colo.
Des Moines, Iowa.
Elmira, N. Y.
Evansville, Ind.
Grand Rapids, Mich.
Hartford, Conn.
Indianapolis, Ind.
Kalamazoo, Mich.
Lancaster, Pa.
Lincoln, Nebr.
Louisville, Ky.
Lynn, Mass.
Malden, Mass.
Milwaukee, Wis.
Minneapolis, Minn.
Newark, N. J.
Newport, R. I.
Oakland, Cal.
Orange, N. J.
Pawtucket, R. I.
Peoria, Ill.
Pittsburg, Pa.
Rochester, N. Y.
St. Louis, Mo.
St. Paul, Minn.
San Francisco, Cal.
Seattle, Wash.
Springfield, Mass.
Washington, D. C.
Wilkesbarre, Pa.
Worcester, Mass.
Youngstown, Ohio.

These cities are distributed geographically as follows:

North Atlantic States	17
North Central States	18
Southern States, including District of Columbia	4
Western States	4

A report was also furnished by the charity organization society of Honolulu, Hawaii.

No figures are available showing, by race or people, the population of the cities included in this investigation. The census of 1910, however, will compile data by race or people (mother tongue), and a comparison of this report with the census will clearly establish the proportion of persons of each race who receive assistance from charity organization societies.

The report on immigrants as charity seekers is presented in two volumes. The first volume contains a general summary of the data secured, the statistical compilation from the United States Census bulletin previously referred to, a discussion of the data for the cities of Baltimore, Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Washington, and Honolulu, and a grand summary of all data in the form of general tables. The second volume consists entirely of general tables based on the data collected in each city.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

The summary table which follows shows for each of the 43 cities from which information was secured the number of cases reported. Each individual or family asking assistance the charity society calls a "case," and the term is used throughout this report to mean an individual or family assisted by some one of the societies furnishing reports. As before stated, no report was made of a case unless some assistance was given. The data are presented by general nativity and race, or people, of head of case. In a case consisting of a family the "head of case" is the husband, if living at home, or the wife, if a widow or deserted. In a case where there is no family, such for instance as brothers and sisters, the "head of case" is the person upon whom falls the responsibility of providing; or if such responsibility is apparently fairly divided the "head of case" is the person who makes application for assistance.

The largest proportion of cases in which the head was foreign-born is shown by the German, with 2,156, or 6.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 8,475 persons, or 7.1 per cent of the total number of persons. The next largest is shown by the Polish, with 2,048 cases, or 6.5 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 10,245 persons, or 8.6 per cent of the total number of persons. The Irish, English, South Italian, Hebrew, Swedish, etc., follow in the order shown in the preceding table. But few cities reported any number of Hebrews, owing to the fact that these people are assisted chiefly by the charity societies of their own race.

A much larger proportion of the population is of foreign birth in the northern and western States than in the southern States, therefore the cases assisted and the persons involved have been summarized for the cities within each of the following geographical divisions:

North Atlantic States.
North Central States.
Southern States.
Western States.

The cities included under each of the divisions are as follows:

North Atlantic States.—Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Elmira, Hartford, Lancaster, Lynn, Malden, Newark, Newport, Orange, Pawtucket, Pittsburg, Rochester, Springfield, Wilkesbarre, Worcester.

North Central States.—Bloomington, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Des Moines, Evansville, Grand Rapids, Indianapolis, Kalamazoo, Lincoln, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Peoria, St. Louis, St. Paul, Youngstown.

Southern States.—Atlanta, Baltimore, Louisville, Washington.

Western States.—Denver, Oakland, San Francisco, Seattle.

The tables which follow show the number of cases and the number of persons involved in these cases in each geographical division, by general nativity and race of head of case. The percentage of the total which the cases and persons of each race form is also shown.

TABLE 4.—Cases assisted in the cities within each geographical division, by general nativity and race of head of case.

a Less than 0.05 per cent.

The proportion of heads of cases of each general nativity group in each geographical division is shown in the following statement:

Geographical division.	Per cent of heads of cases.
	Native-born of native father.		Native-born of foreign father.	Foreign-born.
	White.	Negro.
North Atlantic	33.2	4.0	9.6	53.2
North Central	38.2	9.4	13.9	38.5
Southern	54.8	31.9	3.2	10.0
Western	45.4	1.6	12.8	40.2
Total	39.9	11.1	10.7	38.3

Of the persons involved, the proportion in cases where the head of case was foreign-born was 57 per cent in the North Atlantic States, 43.3 per cent in the North Central States, 10.2 per cent in the Southern States, and 44.4 per cent in the Western States.

Referring again to the table relating to cases, it is seen that among the races where the head of case was foreign-born or native-born of foreign father the races ranking first, second, and third in the proportion of cases within each geographical division were as follows:

North Atlantic.—Irish, foreign-born, 11.3 per cent; Polish, foreign-born, 9.2 per cent; German, foreign-born, 6.3 per cent.

North Central.—German, foreign-born, 8.2 per cent; Polish, foreign-born, 7.2 per cent; German, native-born of foreign father, 5.9 per cent.

Southern.—German, foreign-born, 3.5 per cent; German, native-born of foreign father, 2 per cent; Polish, foreign-born, 1.6 per cent.

Western.—German, foreign-born, 8.2 per cent; English, foreign-born, 6.3 per cent; Irish, native-born of foreign father, 4.8 per cent.

The table which follows shows for each city the proportion of cases assisted of each general nativity and race. Races represented by less than 200 cases are not presented separately in this table.

TABLE 6.—Race distribution of cases assisted in each city, by general nativity and race of head of case; percentages.

[Races reporting less than 200 cases are not shown separately, but are grouped under "Other races."]

e Including 20 cases where race and nativity of head are not reported.

The figures for the general nativity totals and for the total of the 43 cities have already been discussed in connection with previous tables. Attention will here be called only to a few of the races important numerically. Thirty-nine and eight-tenths of all cases reported in the 43 cities were native-born white of native father. More than two-thirds of the cases are of this race in seven of the cities. These cities are—

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Evansville	88.0	Springfield	69.5
Atlanta	79.6	Dayton	69.3
Indianapolis	76.9	Elmira	68.8
Des Moines	73.1

In 10 of the cities less than one-fourth of the cases were native-born white of native father. The cities are—

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Milwaukee	5.8	Youngstown	22.0
Buffalo	15.0	Newark	23.3
St. Paul	16.6	Worcester	23.6
Chicago	17.8	San Francisco	24.1
Cleveland	20.5	Hartford	24.4

The negroes native-born of native father constituted more than one-fifth of the cases in seven cities and more than one-half of the cases in one of those cities, as follows:

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Washington	56.9	St. Louis	22.6
Columbus	31.8	Baltimore	21.0
Louisville	28.9	Orange	20.5
Dayton	23.5

Among the foreign-born, the Germans are numerically the most important, and in seven cities more than 10 per cent of the cases were of that race. The cities are—

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Milwaukee	33.3	Rochester	11.2
St. Paul	16.1	Buffalo	11.1
San Francisco	13.1	Cleveland	10.9
Lincoln	11.2

In five of the cities more than 10 per cent of the cases were foreign-born Polish. These cities are—

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Buffalo	32.0	Milwaukee	16.8
Chicago	20.0	Cleveland	11.3
Wilkesbarre	18.8

In seven of the cities more than 15 per cent of the cases were foreign-born Irish, as follows:

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Orange	26.4	Boston	17.2
Newport	22.2	Brooklyn	15.2
Worcester	21.8	Hartford	15.1
Lynn	19.3

The foreign-born English form 14.9 per cent of the cases in Pawtucket, but in no other city does the proportion of this race reach 10 per cent.

The foreign-born South Italians form 5 per cent or more of the cases in five cities, as follows:

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Rochester	14.6	Hartford	6.4
Boston	9.6	Youngstown	5.0
Buffalo	9.1

In many of the cities the Hebrews maintain a separate charity organization for their own race, but in six cities more than 5 per cent of the cases assisted by the charity organizations societies reporting were foreign-born Hebrews. The cities are—

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Brooklyn	18.1	Minneapolis	6.9
Malden	15.7	Hartford	6.1
Lynn	7.1	St. Paul	5.7

The foreign-born Bohemians and Moravians form 5.9 per cent of the cases in Chicago; the foreign-born Canadians other than French, 10.7 per cent of the cases in Lynn; the foreign-born Magyars, 5.4 per cent of the cases in Cleveland; the foreign-born Norwegians, 8.3 per cent of the cases in Minneapolis; the foreign-born Scotch, 6.3 per cent of the cases in Pawtucket; the foreign-born Slovaks, 7 per cent of the cases in Youngstown and 6.4 per cent in Cleveland, and the foreign-born Swedes, 12.5 per cent of the cases in Minneapolis.

The table which follows shows for each city the races ranking first and second in number of cases among the foreign-born:

[a] In this city new cases only are included.

Among the foreign races, the German ranks first in Baltimore, Bloomington, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Denver, Evansville, Indianapolis, Lancaster, Lincoln, Louisville, Milwaukee, Oakland, Peoria, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, Washington. The German, with other races which have the same number, also ranks first in Atlanta, Des Moines, and Elmira.

The Irish ranks first among the foreign races in Boston, Hartford, Lynn, Newark, Newport, Orange, Pittsburg, Worcester, Youngstown. With the German, which has the same number, the Irish also ranks first in Elmira.

The Polish ranks first among foreign races in Buffalo, Chicago, Cleveland, and Wilkesbarre; and with the Dutch, which has the same number, also ranks first in Grand Rapids.

The English ranks first among foreign races in Pawtucket, Seattle, and Springfield, and with the German, which has the same number, also ranks first in Atlanta.

The Hebrew ranks first among foreign races in Brooklyn and Malden, and with other races which have the same number, also ranks first in Des Moines. The Dutch ranks first in Kalamazoo, and with the Polish, which has the same number, also ranks first in Grand Rapids. The Swedish ranks first in Minneapolis, and with other races which have the same number, also ranks first in Des Moines. The South Italian ranks first in Rochester.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The classification of the apparent causes of need has been made under 15 headings, and these causes have been grouped under six general classes. The general classes and the causes in detail are as follows:

1. Death or disability of breadwinner:
   - Accident to breadwinner.
   - Death of breadwinner.
   - Illness of breadwinner.
2. Death or disability of another member of family:
   - Accident to another member of family.
   - Death of another member of family.
   - Illness of another member of family.
3. Lack of employment or insufficient earnings:
   - Insufficient earnings.
   - Lack of employment.
4. Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner:
   - Desertion by husband.
   - Incarceration of breadwinner.
   - Intemperance of breadwinner.
   - Neglect by breadwinner.
5. Old age.
6. Other:
   - Loss by fire.
   - Other.

The following tables and charts present for each general class of apparent causes of need the proportion of cases and of persons involved, by race of head of case. The per cents for each race total more than 100, owing to the fact that in many cases more than one cause was reported. The first table, with its accompanying charts, relates to cases and the second to persons involved in these cases.

TABLE 8.—Per cent of cases assisted for each specified class of apparent causes of need, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 50 or more cases, as shown in Table 3. The totals, however, are for all races.]

The per cent of the total number of cases and the per cent of the total number of persons involved reporting the different classes of apparent causes of need are, in order of importance, as follows:

Class of apparent causes of need.	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	59.0	61.8
Death or disability of breadwinner	28.7	28.0
Death or disability of another member of family	18.9	23.1
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	18.7	20.8
Old age	6.2	2.9
Other causes	10.0	9.1

The cause reported in the largest proportion of cases and involving the largest proportion of persons is lack of employment or insufficient earnings. This cause was reported in 59 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 61.8 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was foreign-born report this cause of need in 59.8 per cent of the total number of cases, the total native-born reporting 58.6 per cent, and the native-born of foreign father, 62.1 per cent.

The races for which lack of employment or insufficient earnings was the apparent cause of need for two-thirds or more of the cases are as follows:

Race.	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Syrian, foreign-born	75.4	81.8
English, native-born of foreign father	68.1	72.9
Italian (not specified), foreign-born	68.1	70.0
Italian, South, foreign-born	67.8	69.2

The French Canadian foreign-born, with 38.9 per cent, the Swedish foreign-born, with 46.1 per cent, and the Swedish native-born of foreign father, with 49.3 per cent, show small proportions reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings. Of the white native-born of native father, 60 per cent reported this cause.

The second most important apparent cause of need was death or disability of breadwinner. The per cent of the total number of cases reporting this cause is 28.7, involving 28 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was foreign-born show a slightly larger proportion, 30.2 per cent, reporting death or disability of breadwinner than do the total native-born, with 27.7 per cent so reported, and the native-born of foreign father, with 27.2 per cent. The races reporting a large proportion where this was the apparent cause of need are the Swedish foreign-born, with 35.9 per cent; the Norwegian foreign-born, with 33.6 per cent; and the Danish foreign-born, with 33.3 per cent. The races with a small proportion of cases reporting death or disability of breadwinner are the Scotch native-born of foreign father, with 18.5 per cent; the Scotch foreign-born, with 19.6 per cent; and the Syrian foreign-born, with 20 per cent. The cases in which the head was white native-born of native father show 26.4 per cent thus reported.

Death or disability of another member of family was reported in 18.9 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 23.1 per cent of the total number of persons.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner was reported in 18.7 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 20.8 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was Polish native-born of foreign father, and Swedish native-born of foreign father, show the largest proportions of cases reporting this cause, their percentages being 34 and 29.9, respectively. The white native-born of native father show 19.6 per cent so reported.

Old age was reported in 6.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 2.9 per cent of the total number of persons. The smaller proportion shown for the number of persons is due to the fact that the cases in which this cause was reported consisted, with but few exceptions, of from one to three individuals. Old age was reported as the apparent cause of need in 7.1 per cent of the foreign cases; 3.9 per cent of the cases of immigrants of the second generation; 9.7 per cent of the negro native-born of native father; and 5 per cent of the white native-born of native father.

For 8 of the foreign races old age was reported as the apparent cause of need in one-tenth or more of the cases, as follows:

	Per cent.
French	16.1
Canadian, French	15.0
Welsh	13.0
Irish	11.7
German	11.6
Dutch	11.4
Norwegian	10.1
Portuguese	10.0

The apparent cause of need was reported in detail under fifteen headings, as indicated on the following page. Several of these causes closely overlap, while in many cases more distinct causes were reported. The tables which follow show for each race the per cent of cases and the per cent of persons involved in cases assisted for each of the 15 specified causes.

Food or meals were furnished to 49.6 per cent of the cases, which involved 51.4 per cent of the total number of persons. This aid was furnished to more than 60 per cent of the cases of the races which follow:

	Per cent.
Welsh, foreign-born	68.6
Polish, foreign-born	65.8
Italian, South, foreign-born	65.3
Lithuanian, foreign-born	63.4
English, native-born of foreign father	61.0

Fuel was furnished to more than one-third of the cases of the following races:

	Per cent.
Polish, foreign-born	41.2
Polish, native-born of foreign father	40.7
German, native-born of foreign father	36.5

Clothing was furnished to more than one-third of the cases of the following races:

	Per cent.
Slovak, foreign-born	41.7
Finnish, foreign-born	40.8
Magyar, foreign-born	38.7
Dutch, foreign-born	37.5
Lithuanian, foreign-born	35.1
Scotch, native-born of foreign father	33.7

Medicine or medical assistance was furnished to one-fourth or more of the cases of the following races:

	Per cent.
Hebrew, foreign-born	40.0
Bohemian and Moravian, foreign-born	29.4
French, foreign-born	29.0
Canadian, French, foreign-born	27.9

The percentages of cases furnished the aid specified, by general nativity of head of case, were as follows:

Aid given.	Native-born of native father.		Native-born of foreign father.	Foreign-born.	Total.
	White.	Negro.
Cash	7.1	4.1	8.2	7.5	7.0
Clothing	24.7	19.8	28.0	24.2	24.3

Transportation	3.1	1.3	2.0	2.4	2.5
Other	19.0	12.2	16.6	18.0	17.6

The most radical differences in the above comparisons are with respect to the negro native-born of native father. Employment was secured for a much smaller proportion and medicine and medical assistance were furnished in a much larger proportion of cases of that race than of any of the other classes shown in the above table.

PERSONS PER CASE.

The per cent of cases assisted consisting of each specified number of persons is shown, by general nativity and race of head of case, in the table which follows:

TABLE 15.—Per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 50 or more cases, as shown in Table 3. The totals, however, are for all races.]

The large proportion of cases consisting of only a few persons is worthy of note. Of the 31,562 cases, the per cent consisting of each specified number of persons is as follows:

	Per cent.		Per cent.
1 person	20.4	6 persons	9.4
2 persons	16.1	7 persons	6.9
3 persons	14.6	8 persons	4.0
4 persons	13.8	9 persons	2.0
5 persons	11.6	10 or more persons	1.2

The cases where the head was foreign-born average a somewhat larger number of persons per case than do the cases where the head was native-born. Those consisting of eight or more persons show 10.1 per cent where the head of case was foreign-born and 5.4 per cent where the head of case was native-born.

The races having comparatively large proportions of cases consisting of eight or more persons are—

	Per cent.
Dutch, foreign-born	18.9
Portuguese, foreign-born	16.0
Canadian, French, foreign-born	15.9
Italian, North, foreign-born	14.1

"TYPE" OF CASE.

The cases included in this investigation have been classified under four groups and each group has been termed a "type." The groups are—

1. Cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children.
2. Cases consisting of a widow, with or without children.
3. Cases consisting of a widower, with or without children.
4. All other cases.

The number of cases of each "type," and the size of each family involved is shown in the table next presented.

Of the total number of cases, 49.6 per cent consisted of husband and wife, with or without children; 29.7 per cent consisted of widows, with or without children; 4.4 per cent consisted of widowers, with or without children; and 16.3 per cent were of "other types." The proportion of cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children, was greater among the foreign-born than among the native-born, the percentages being 53.4 and 47.2, respectively.

Among the following races more than 35 per cent of the cases were widows, with or without children:

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings was the apparent cause in the greatest proportion of cases, or 56.7 per cent of the total number. Disability of husband was reported as an apparent cause in 31.9 per cent of the cases, death or disability of another member of family in 19.9 per cent, old age in 18 per cent, neglect or bad habits of husband in 9.5 per cent, and other causes in 7.7 per cent of the cases. Old age was reported as an apparent cause in a considerably larger proportion of the cases where the head was foreign-born than of the cases where the head was native-born, the percentages being 28.4 and 12.8, respectively.

The age of the husband in the cases which consisted of husband and wife without children is shown in the table which follows.

Practically one-half of the 117,887 persons involved, for whom information relative to age was secured, were under 16 years of age, the percentage being 49.7. Thirty-one per cent were from 16 to 39 years of age; 14.6 per cent 40 to 59; and 4.6 per cent 60 or over. The cases where the head was foreign-born have a larger proportion of persons under 16 and a smaller proportion from 16 to 39 than have the cases where the head was native-born. In the two older age groups there is practically no difference between native and foreign cases.

The following statement shows the per cent in each age group, by general nativity of head of case.

Age.	Head of case native-born.	Head of case foreign-born.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Under 16	47.3	53.0
16 to 39	33.1	28.2
40 to 59	14.8	14.3
60 or over	4.8	4.4

In the age group "under 16" were 59.6 per cent of the persons in the Bohemian and Moravian foreign-born cases, 59.4 per cent of the persons in the Polish foreign-born cases, and 58.8 per cent of the persons in the Lithuanian foreign-born cases.

The races show wide variations in the proportions of persons 60 years of age or over. The French foreign-born have the largest proportion 60 years of age or over, the percentage being 9.8; the English foreign-born are second in order, with 8.5 per cent, and the Welsh third, with 8.1 per cent.

CONJUGAL CONDITION OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The general table relating to conjugal condition groups the persons according to age, but the text table which follows shows the data only for the total number of persons 20 years of age or over. The data are presented by sex and by general nativity and race of the individual.

Of the total number of persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition, 13.4 per cent were single, 65 per cent married, and 21.6 per cent deserted, separated, or widowed.

A considerably smaller proportion of the foreign-born than of the native-born were single; the percentages are 8 and 16.6, respectively. The proportion of those widowed varies only slightly in the general nativity groups, but varies materially among the races.

The following races show more than one-fourth of all persons involved, either deserted, separated, or widowed:

	Per cent.
Negro, native-born of native father	30.4
Swedish, foreign-born	28.6
Irish, foreign-born	28.1
Norwegian, foreign-born	27.7
Bohemian and Moravian, foreign-born	26.8
German, foreign-born	25.5

A comparison of the sexes as to conjugal condition shows the following:

	Male.	Female.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Single	20.8	7.7
Married	73.9	58.1
Deserted, separated, or widowed	5.3	34.2

Of the foreign-born males 13.5 per cent were single, while of the foreign-born females only 3.8 per cent were single. Of the foreign-born males 5 per cent and of the foreign-born females 33.9 per cent were deserted, separated, or divorced.

Of the females, 40 per cent or more in the following races were deserted, separated, or divorced:

Irish, foreign-born	40.0

The next table shows, by race, the number of cases where the wife was the head, reported widowed, deserted, or separated, and the per cent which each forms of the total.

The cases where a widow was the head comprise 20.5 per cent of the total number. The percentages, by general nativity, are 21.3 for foreign-born and 19.9 for native-born.

For several races the head was a widow in more than one-fourth of all cases. The races are—

	Per cent.
Irish, foreign-born	30.8
Bohemian and Moravian, foreign-born	29.6
Negro, native-born of native father	28.7
Norwegian, foreign-born	27.0

The cases where the head was a woman deserted or separated, comprise 9.7 per cent of the total number. The percentages by general nativity are, for the native-born 10.8 and for the foreign-born 7.9.

The next table includes the same cases as are shown in the table immediately preceding. This table, however, shows for all cases in which the wife was the head, reported widowed, deserted, or separated, the proportion of cases in which she was widowed, and the proportion of cases in which she was deserted or separated.

The wife was reported widowed in 67.8 per cent and deserted or separated in 32.2 per cent of all cases where a wife was the head of a case and reported widowed, deserted, or separated. Among the foreign-born 27.1 per cent, and among the native-born 35.2 per cent, were reported deserted or separated.

GENERAL OCCUPATION OF PERSONS UNDER 16 YEARS OF AGE.

The next table shows for each race the percentage of children at home, at school, and at work. These data are shown in the general tables for all children under 16 and also for each of the age groups—under 6, 6 to 13, and 14 and 15.

Of the 36,533 children 6 and under 16 years of age involved in the cases assisted, 10.3 per cent were at home, 84.5 per cent were at school, and 5.2 per cent were at work. There is very little difference in the proportions for those of native birth and those of foreign birth; 10.4 per cent of those of native birth and 9.5 per cent of those of foreign birth were at home; 84.4 per cent of those of native birth and 85.4 per cent of those of foreign birth were at school; and 5.3 per cent of those of native birth and 5.1 per cent of those of foreign birth were at work.

Comparing the totals for each sex, it is seen that a slightly smaller proportion of males than of females were at home and that a somewhat larger proportion of males than of females were at work.

The next table simply brings together for convenient comparison the foreign-born children and the second generation. For the purpose of comparison, data for white children native-born of native father are also entered.

TABLE 26.—Number and per cent of children 6 and under 16 years of age at home, at school, and at work, by general nativity and race of father and by birthplace of child.

[This table includes only races with 20 or more children born in the United States, and also 20 or more children born abroad. The white native-born of native father are shown for comparative purposes.]

From the above table it is seen that of the Polish children 6 and under 16 years of age born abroad, 10.6 per cent were at home, 83.4 per cent at school, and 6 per cent at work, while of the Polish children born in the United States of foreign-born Polish fathers, 12.2 per cent were at home, 82.3 per cent at school, and 5.5 per cent at work.

Six races are each represented by more than 100 children born in the United States and more than 100 born abroad. Those races are the Bohemian and Moravian, Canadian other than French, German, Hebrew, South Italian, and Polish. The proportion of children at work was greater among children of native birth than among those of foreign birth for the Bohemian and Moravian, Canadian other than French, and German; the same among those of each nativity for the Hebrew; and less among children of native birth than among those of foreign birth for the South Italian and Polish.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

In only a small proportion of cases were those receiving charitable assistance recent immigrants to the United States. The total number of cases in which the head of the case was foreign-born reporting years in the United States is 11,703. The tables and chart which follow show for each race represented by 50 or more cases the proportion in the United States each specified number of years. The second table shows the percentages in the cumulative form; that is, the per cent in the United States under 1 year, under 3 years, under 5 years, etc.

ABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

For all persons involved, 6 years of age or over and belonging to non-English-speaking races, the table which follows shows the per cent who speak English. The data are shown for each sex by general nativity and race of individual.

TABLE 31.—Per cent of persons 6 years of age or over who speak English, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

[This table includes only non-English-speaking races with 40 or more persons reporting. The totals, however, are for all non-English-speaking races.]

Of the 15,420 persons included in the above table, 86.4 per cent speak English; the percentage for males is 89.6 and for females 83.6. Seventy-six and three-tenths per cent of the total foreign-born and 97.8 per cent of the total native-born of foreign father speak English. Of the foreign-born, 81.5 per cent of the males and 71.8 per cent of the females speak English. Of the native-born of foreign father (immigrants of the second generation) 97.8 per cent of both males and females speak English. Several of the foreign races show low proportions speaking English. Those races are—

Among immigrants of the second generation the Slovenians, with 92.9 per cent speaking English, show the lowest proportion, the Croatians, with 93.3 per cent, are second in order, and the Polish, with 94 per cent, are third.

A comparison between the foreign-born and native-born of foreign father of each non-English-speaking race as to the percentage speaking English, is shown in the following statement:

CITIZENSHIP.

Data relative to citizenship were tabulated for all foreign-born males who had been in the United States five years or over and who were 21 years of age or over at the time of arrival. The object was to include only those who had been in the United States long enough to secure naturalization papers and who were of sufficient age when they arrived that it would require effort on their part, rather than on their fathers' part, to become citizens. The table shows for each race the number and per cent fully naturalized and the number and per cent having only first naturalization papers.

TABLE 32.—Present political condition of foreign-born males who have been in the United States 5 years or over and who were 21 years of age or over at time of coming, by race of individual.

[This table includes only races with 20 or more males reporting. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

Of the 3,838 persons included, 2,246, or 58.5 per cent, were fully naturalized, and 400, or 10.4 per cent, had taken out only first naturalization papers. Several of the races show three-fourths or more fully naturalized. Those races are—

	Per cent.		Per cent.
Welsh	95.5	Norwegian	77.8
Swedish	84.5	German	76.6
Irish	83.7	Danish	75.0

The races showing high proportions fully naturalized are of the older immigration and those showing low proportions are of the more recent immigration. In the grand summary, Table 19, page 390, the table relating to citizenship shows the data according to length of residence in the United States.

DIGEST OF THE REPORT ON HONOLULU, HAWAII.

The report for Honolulu, Hawaii, covers the work of the Associated Charities from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909. In order to satisfactorily present the data, it was necessary to modify the form of tabulation used for the cities of continental United States. It was impossible, therefore, to combine the data for Honolulu with those for the other cities included in the Commission's report on immigrants as charity seekers.

During the period of the investigation 117 cases were assisted, involving 429 persons. The cases are divided as to nativity, as follows:

Nativity of head of case.	Cases assisted.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
Born in Hawaiian Islands of native (Hawaiian) father	12	10.3	49	11.4
Born in Hawaiian Islands of father born elsewhere	3	2.6	7	1.6
Born in continental United States of native father	18	15.4	39	9.1
Born in continental United States of father born elsewhere	3	2.6	4	.9
Foreign-born	81	69.2	330	76.9
Total	117	100.0	429	100.0

The cases in which the head was foreign-born comprise the larger proportion of those assisted, numbering 81 cases, or 69.2 per cent of the total number, and involving 330 persons, or 76.9 per cent of the total number of persons.

The races represented by more than 10 cases are the following:

Race of head of case.	Cases assisted.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
Portuguese, foreign-born	43	36.8	217	50.6
White, born in continental United States of native father	17	14.5	31	7.2
Porto Rican, foreign-born	13	11.1	44	10.3
Hawaiian, born of Hawaiian father	12	10.3	49	11.4

As will be seen from the preceding table, the foreign-born Portuguese are represented by the largest number of cases, involving over one-half of the total number of persons. The other races represented by 10 or more cases are the white born in continental United States of native father, the foreign-born Porto Rican, and the native Hawaiian, born of Hawaiian father.

DISCUSSION OF DATA FOR NINE CITIES.

In what follows there is presented a discussion of the data for the cities of Baltimore, Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Washington, and Honolulu, and a grand summary of all data in the form of general tables.

BALTIMORE, MD.

BALTIMORE.

The report for Baltimore, Md., was furnished by the Federated Charities, and includes all the cases assisted by the society from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

A general summary of the assistance given by the Federated Charities of Baltimore, by general nativity and race of head of case, follows:

a Less than 0.05 per cent.

During the period of the investigation 2,472 cases reporting race of head of case were assisted, involving 9,505 persons. The cases in which the head was native-born comprise the larger proportion of the cases assisted, having 2,094, or 84.7 per cent of the total number, with 7,991 persons involved, or 84.1 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was foreign-born numbered 378, or 15.3 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 1,514 persons, or 15.9 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was native-born of foreign father show a total of 119 cases, or 4.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 546 persons, or 5.7 per cent of the total number of persons.

The races represented by 20 or more cases are as follows:

Race.	Cases assisted.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
White, native-born of native father	1,455	58.9	5,793	60.9
Negro, native-born of native father	520	21.0	1,652	17.4
German, foreign-born	140	5.7	539	5.7

Bohemian and Moravian, foreign-born	31	1.3	146	1.5
Irish, native-born of foreign father	23	.9	83	.9

As may be noted above, the cases in which the head was white, native-born of native father, received the greatest proportion of the assistance given by the society; 1,455 cases, or 58.9 per cent of the total number of cases, were assisted. These cases consisted of 5,793 persons, or 60.9 per cent of the total number of persons. The number of cases in which the head was negro, native-born of native father, was 520, or 21 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 1,652 persons, or 17.4 per cent of the total number of persons. The remainder of the cases were small in number in comparison with the native-born of native father; in 5.7 per cent of the total number of cases the heads were German, foreign-born; in 3.4 per cent Polish, foreign-born; in 3.2 per cent German, native-born of foreign father; in 1.7 per cent Irish, foreign-born; in 1.3 per cent Bohemian and Moravian, foreign-born, and in 0.9 per cent Irish, native-born of foreign father.

The races represented by 20 or more cases have been selected for more detailed study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The apparent causes for seeking assistance from the society are shown in the following tables. These causes are given in more detail in General Tables 2–5, Volume II, pages 34–37.

The per cent of cases and persons involved for each class of apparent causes of need, in the order of their importance, follows. It will be noted that the total of the per cents for each cause is more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	52.1	54.8
Death or disability of breadwinner	26.4	24.7
Death or disability of another member of family	20.8	24.6
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	18.0	18.6
Old age	3.6	1.5
Other	8.7	9.1

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone, or along with other causes, was reported as a cause of need in 52.1 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 54.8 per cent of the total number of persons. Over one-half the cases for each race report such a cause of need, with the exception of the cases in which the head was negro, native-born of native father, 41.5 per cent, and Polish, foreign-born, 47.1 per cent.

Sickness or death is classified under two headings—death or disability of breadwinner and death or disability of another member of family; the former is reported in 26.4 per cent and the latter in 20.8 per cent of the total number of cases.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner was given as the cause of need in 18 per cent, and old age in 3.6 per cent of the total number of cases.

AID GIVEN.

The aid furnished by the society is presented in the following tables showing the per cent of cases and the per cent of persons involved for each specified aid given. More detailed information may be found in General Tables 6 and 7, Volume II, pages 38 and 39.

Food or meals, alone, or along with other assistance, was furnished in 47 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 49.4 per cent of the total number of persons. Medicine or medical assistance was furnished to 28.3 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 29.9 per cent of the total number of persons. Employment was secured for 20.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 20.4 per cent of the total number of persons. Fuel was furnished to 11.7 per cent of the total number of persons, involving 11.8 per cent of the total number of persons. Cash was furnished to 5.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 6.2 per cent of the total number of persons. Clothing was furnished to 3.5 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 4.8 per cent of the total number of persons.

The only marked differences in the aid furnished the different nativities is shown by medicine or medical assistance, the native-born having 28.5 per cent, the foreign-born 27.2 per cent, and the native-born of foreign father 42 per cent of their cases so assisted.

PERSONS PER CASE.

The total number of persons involved in the 2,472 cases assisted is 9,505. The average number of persons per case is 3.85. The average number of persons per case for the cases in which the head was foreign-born is 4.01, native-born of foreign father 4.59, total native-born 3.82, and white native-born of native father 3.89. (See Table 3, page 81.)

The following table presents the number and per cent of cases, by race of head of case, consisting of each specified number of persons:

TABLE 38.—Number and per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

Of the 4,519 persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition, 746, or 16.5 per cent, were single; 2,924, or 64.7 per cent, were married; and 849, or 18.8 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed. The foreign-born show a larger proportion of persons married and deserted, separated, or widowed than the native-born, while the native-born show a larger proportion of single persons than the foreign-born.

Separating by sex, 22.1 per cent of the males and 12.2 per cent of the females were single, 72.5 per cent of the males and 58.7 per cent of the females were married, and 5.4 per cent of the males and 29.1 per cent of the females were deserted, separated, or widowed.

Comparing the number of cases where the wife is the head reported widowed, deserted, or separated with the total number of cases and with the total number so reported, the following tables are presented:

The children 6 and under 16 years of age involved in the cases assisted number 2,740. The percentage of these children at school was 86.9, at home 5, and at work 8.1. The children foreign-born and native-born of foreign father show a smaller proportion at school and a larger proportion at work than do the native-born of native father. The foreign-born show a larger proportion at home. The native-born of German and Irish father show the largest proportion of children at work with 14.2 and 12.7 per cent, respectively, as compared with 7.9 per cent for the white native-born of native father.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The number of cases assisted by the society whose heads were foreign-born reporting length of residence in the United States was 346. The data in detail are shown in General Tables

Years in the United States is found in the table below for the foreign-born heads of cases by race of head of case.

TABLE 47.—Number and per cent of foreign-born heads of cases in the United States each specified number of years, by race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 20 or more cases, as shown in Table 33. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

Total	346	40	49	71	186	11.6	25.7	46.2

Of the 346 foreign-born heads of cases, 186, or 53.8 per cent, had been in the United States twenty years or over; 40, or 11.6 per cent, had been here less than five years; 89, or 25.7 per cent, had been here less than ten years; and 160, or 46.2 per cent, had been here less than twenty years. The foreign-born Bohemian and Moravian heads of cases show 23.3 per cent here less than five years and 30 per cent here less than ten years.

Taking each individual who was foreign-born reporting years in the United States, the length of residence is shown in the following table by race of individual:

TABLE 48.—Number and per cent of foreign-born persons in the United States each specified number of years, by race of individual.

ABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

The ability to speak the English language for the non-English-speaking races is shown in the following table:

TABLE 49.—Per cent of persons 6 years of age or over who speak English, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

[This table includes only non-English-speaking races with 40 or more persons reporting. The totals, however, are for all non-English-speaking races.]

Total foreign-born	265	315	580	91.3	91.1	91.2

As seen in the foregoing table, the entire number of native-born of foreign father belonging to the non-English-speaking races can speak English. Of the foreign-born, 91.2 per cent can speak English, the lowest proportion (80.3) being shown by the Bohemian and Moravian and the highest (97.5) by the German.

CITIZENSHIP.

The proportion of foreign-born males who have been in the United States five years or over, and who were 21 years of age or over at the time of coming, having first and second naturalization papers is shown in the table which follows.

TABLE 50.—Present political condition of foreign-born males who have been in the United States 5 years or over and who were 21 years of age or over at time of coming, by race of individual.

[This table includes only races with 20 or more males reporting. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

Considering the proportion of foreign-born who have been in the United States twenty years or over, as shown in Tables 47 and 48, the proportion of males having first or second papers is rather small. Of the 105 males who have been in the United States five years or over and who were 21 years of age or over at the time of coming, 61, or 58.1 per cent, are fully naturalized. and 7, or 6.7 per cent, have only first papers.

BOSTON, MASS.

BOSTON.

The report furnished by the Associated Charities of Boston, Mass., includes only the new cases assisted by that society from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

The following table presents in detail, by general nativity and race of head of case, the number and per cent of cases assisted and the number and per cent of persons involved in such cases:

a Less than 0.05 per cent.

The total number of cases assisted by the society reporting data was 1,006, and the total number of persons involved in these cases was 3,482.

Of the 1,006 cases, 616, or 61.2 per cent, were cases in which the head of the case was foreign-born and 390, or 38.8 per cent, were cases in which the head was native-born. Included with the native-born are 48 cases, or 4.8 per cent of the total number, in which the head was native-born of foreign father.

The races represented by 20 or more cases, together with the number and per cent of cases and persons involved, are as follows:

Race.	Cases assisted.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
White, native-born of native father	308	30.6	926	26.6

Hebrew, foreign-born	23	2.3	115	3.3
Scotch, foreign-born	20	2.0	50	1.4

Of the total number of persons, 2,266, or 65.1 per cent, were persons involved in cases in which the head was foreign-born, and 1,216, or 34.9 per cent, were persons involved in cases in which the head was native-born. Included with the native-born were 188 persons, or 5.4 per cent of the total number of persons, involved in cases in which the head was native-born of foreign father.

The greatest proportion of assistance given any single race was to the white, native-born of native father, with 308 cases assisted, or 30.6 per cent of the total number, involving 926 persons, or 26.6 per cent of the total number of persons. The Irish, Canadian, other than French, South Italian, English, Italian (not specified), Hebrew, and Scotch are the foreign-born races assisted by the society and showing percentages ranging in the order named from 11.8 to 2. The negro, native-born of native father, show a percentage of 3.4, and the Irish, native-born of foreign father, 3.2. The races represented by 20 or more cases have been selected for a more detailed study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The classes of apparent causes of need are shown, by general nativity and race of head of case, for the cases and persons involved, in the tables which follow. This information may be found in more detail in General Tables 2–5, Volume II, pages 98–101. It will be noted that the per cents for each race are more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

The classes of apparent causes of need in the order of importance, together with the per cent of cases and per cent of persons involved, are as follows:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	46.5	44.1

Neglect or bad habits of bread-winner	20.1	23.3
Death or disability of another member of family	19.7	25.6
Old age	5.5	2.8
Other	13.3	14.4

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings alone, or along with other causes, was the apparent cause of need in the greatest proportion of cases, having 46.5 per cent of the total number so reported. The cases in which the head was foreign-born report lack of employment or insufficient earnings as a cause of need in 44.7 per cent of their number and the native-born in 49.2 per cent.

A larger proportion of the cases in which the head was foreign-born than native-born reported death or disability of breadwinner or another member of family as a cause of need. Included in these classes were accident, illness, or death of breadwinner or of another member of family.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner includes desertion by husband, incarceration of breadwinner, intemperance of breadwinner, and neglect by breadwinner. This class of causes alone, or along with other causes, was reported in 20.1 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 23.3 per cent of the total number of persons. Of the cases in which the head was native-born, 22.6 per cent are so reported, and of the foreign-born 18.6 per cent.

Old age was reported as a cause of need in 5.7 per cent of the cases in which the head was foreign-born and in 5.1 per cent of the cases in which the head was native-born.

AID GIVEN.

The aid furnished by the society is shown in the tables following for the cases and persons involved, by general nativity and race of head of case. Like the tables showing the causes of need, the per cents will not total 100.

The tables show that 471 cases, or 46.8 per cent of the total number, consist of husband and wife, with or without children. Of this number 175 cases consist of husband and wife with 1 or 2 children and 174 cases consist of husband and wife with from 3 to 5 children.

The cases consisting of widow, with or without children, are 236, or 23.5 per cent of the total number. Of this number, 106 cases consist of widow with 1 or 2 children. The term "widow," as used in this table, includes, besides the widowed, deserted, or divorced, those wives whose husbands are residing elsewhere and unmarried mothers living with their children.

The cases consisting of widower, with or without children, are 67, or 6.7 per cent of the total number, and of this number 56 cases consist of widower alone.

Cases in which there are persons other than husband, wife, and children and cases in which there is neither husband nor wife have been classed as "others." Cases under this class numbered 232, or 23.1 per cent of the total number, and of this number 142 cases consisted of but 1 person.

The next table gives the proportion of cases consisting only of husband and wife.

Of the 1,575 persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition, 1,019, or 64.7 per cent, were married; 306, or 19.4 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed; and 250, or 15.9 per cent, were single. The foreign-born have the larger proportion of persons married, and the native-born the larger proportion of persons deserted, separated or widowed, and single. The large proportion of single persons among the native-born of foreign father is undoubtedly due to the fact that over one-half of such persons are between the ages of 20 and 29.

The South Italian show the largest proportion, or 73.5 per cent, married, and the white, native-born of native father, the smallest, or 60.2 per cent.

Comparing the males and females, the table shows 71.7 per cent of the males and 58.7 per cent of the females married, 5.8 per cent of the males and 31.1 per cent of the females deserted, separated, or widowed, and 22.5 per cent of the males and 10.2 per cent of the females single.

The following tables give the number and per cent of cases in which the wife was the head of the case and reported widowed, deserted, or separated.

A total of 829 children, 6 and under 16 years of age, were involved in the cases assisted. Of this number 87.7 per cent were at school, 8.9 per cent were at home, and 3.4 per cent were at work.

The proportion of foreign-born children at school was 80.6 per cent, native-born of foreign father 90.2 per cent, total native-born 88.9 per cent, and the white, native-born of native father 87.2 per cent. The proportion of foreign-born children at home was 16.1 per cent, native-born of foreign father 6.1 per cent, total native-born 7.7 per cent, and white, native-born of native father 10.1 per cent. The proportion of foreign-born children at work was 3.2 per cent, native-born of foreign father 3.7 per cent, total native-born 3.4 per cent, and white, native-born of native father 2.7 per cent.

The Irish and South Italian, native-born of foreign father, show the largest proportion of children at school, 95.3 and 94.3 per cent, respectively.

A comparison of the occupation of children involved in the cases assisted between the foreign-born, the native-born of foreign father, and the white, native-born of native father, is shown in the following table:

From the foregoing table it may be seen that the foreign-born heads of cases reporting years in the United States numbered 522. Of this number, 20.7 per cent have lived in the United States less than five years, 42.5 per cent less than ten years, and 73 per cent less than twenty years. Of the 96 South Italian heads of cases, 41.7 per cent have lived here less than five years, 74 per cent less than ten years, and 97.9 per cent less than twenty years. Of the 21 Hebrew heads of cases, 28.6 per cent have lived here less than five years, 66.7 per cent less than ten years, and 100 per cent less than twenty years. Of the 16 Scotch heads of cases, 31.3 per cent have lived here less than five years, 43.8 per cent less than ten years, and 75 per cent less than twenty years. The Irish are the oldest inhabitants, with 5 per cent here less than five years, 15.7 per cent less than ten years, and 53.6 per cent less than twenty years.

A similar table follows, showing the period of residence in this country of the foreign-born persons, by race of individual.

This table shows that of 984 foreign-born individuals, 27.5 per cent have resided in the United States less than five years, 53.3 per cent less than ten years, and 80.2 per cent less than twenty years.

The proportion of individuals of each race in the United States each specified number of years is similar to that of the previous table, with the South Italian and Hebrew as the most recent comers and the Irish showing the largest proportion here twenty years or over.

ABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

The percentage of persons foreign-born or native-born of foreign father, 6 years of age or over, belonging to the non-English-speaking races, is presented in the table on next page.

TABLE 68.—Per cent of persons 6 years of age or over who speak English, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

Of the total number reporting, 74.9 per cent speak the English language, with 77.4 per cent of the males and 72.7 per cent of the females. Of the foreign-born, 67.4 per cent speak English, with 71.3 per cent of the males and 63.8 per cent of the females. Of the native-born of foreign father, 98.8 per cent speak English, with 100 per cent of the males and 98 per cent of the females. The proportion speaking English of the Hebrews is 75 per cent, South Italians 54.4 per cent, and Italian (not specified) 61.2 per cent.

CITIZENSHIP.

Data relative to the citizenship of the foreign-born males who have been in the United States five years or over and who were 21 years of age or over at the time of coming is shown in the following table:

Of the 127 reporting citizenship, 63, or 49.6 per cent, were either fully naturalized or had their first papers; 56, or 44.1 per cent, were fully naturalized, and 7, or 5.5 per cent, had first papers only. Of the three races included in this table, 69.7 per cent of the Irish were fully naturalized, 55 per cent of the Canadian (other than French) were fully naturalized, and 21.4 per cent of the South Italian were fully naturalized, and 7.1 per cent had first papers only.

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

BROOKLYN.

The report for Brooklyn, N. Y., covers the work done by the Bureau of Charities for a period of six months from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

During the six months' period of this investigation, the Bureau of Charities assisted 1,663 cases in which the race of the head was reported, which involved 6,244 persons. The number and per cent of cases and the number and per cent of persons involved in such cases are shown by general nativity and race of head of case, in the following table:

TABLE 70.—Cases assisted and persons involved, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[Not including 10 cases, involving 27 persons, race not reported.]

a Less than 0.05 per cent.

It may be seen that the greater proportion of the work done by the society is for the cases in which the head is foreign-born. The number of such cases assisted is 976, or 58.7 per cent of the total number, involving 3,897 persons, or 62.4 per cent of the total number of persons. Of the native-born, but 49 cases, or 2.9 per cent of the total number, are the second-generation immigrants.

Considering the races, the cases in which the head is white, native-born of native father, show the largest number assisted, having 605 cases or 36.4 per cent of the total number, involving 2,109 persons, or 33.8 per cent of the total number of persons. The foreign-born Hebrew had the next largest number assisted, having 302 cases, or 18.2 per cent, with 1,496 persons, or 24 per cent, involved. The foreign-born Irish had 254 cases assisted, or 15.3 per cent, involving 827 persons, or 13.2 per cent of the total number of persons. Each of the remaining races represented had less than 10 per cent of the total number of cases.

Races represented by 20 or more cases have been selected for a more detailed study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The apparent causes for seeking assistance of the society were tabulated under fourteen headings,[a] and again grouped under five classes.[b] The per cent of cases and persons involved, by race of head of case, under each class are given in the table below. Owing to the fact that more than one apparent cause often appears on a case, the per cent for each race will equal more than 100.

TABLE 71.—Per cent of cases assisted for each specified class of apparent causes of need, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The different classes of apparent causes of need in the order of importance, together with the per cent of cases and persons involved, are given below.

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	70.3	71.7
Death or disability of breadwinner	24.8	26.6
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	15.7	14.4
Death or disability of another member of family	8.0	10.3
Old age	2.2	.9
Other	1.9	1.8

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone or along with other causes, is the chief cause of need. The proportion of cases reporting this cause was 70.3 and of the persons involved 71.7. With but two exceptions, the German and Hebrew, the cases in which the head is foreign-born show a much higher proportion reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings than the native-born.

Death or disability of breadwinner, alone or along with other causes, is given as a cause of need in 24.8 per cent of the number of cases reporting, involving 26.6 per cent of the total number of persons. Death or disability of another member of family, alone or along with other causes, is given in 8 per cent of the number of cases reporting, involving 10.3 per cent of the persons. Sickness or death was reported in but 8.8 per cent of the total number of foreign-born Scotch cases.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner, alone or along with other causes, was given as a cause of need in 15.7 per cent of the number of cases reporting, involving 14.4 per cent of the total number of persons. Among the cases in which the head was foreign-born the Italian had the lowest per cent of cases so reporting the cause of need.

Old age is shown in but 2.2 per cent of the total number of cases reported as a cause of need.

AID GIVEN.

The assistance furnished by the society was grouped under nine headings, and the six most important have been selected for study in detail.

The aid given to the several races, by cases and persons involved, is shown in the following tables. More than one kind of assistance was often given to a case. Consequently the per cents will total more than 100.

The assistance furnished, in the order of importance, together with the per cent of cases and persons involved, was as follows:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Employment secured	45.3	40.7
Food or meals	30.5	33.9
Medicine or medical assistance	25.9	31.6
Cash	14.5	16.6
Clothing	12.5	14.9
Lodging	8.0	3.6

As noted above, employment secured received the greatest attention of the society, having 45.3 per cent of the cases reporting so assisted, involving 40.7 per cent of the number of persons. The proportion of cases of the different races aided by securing employment varies from 74.2 per cent of the cases in which the head was a negro, native-born of native father, to 16.4 per cent of the cases in which the head was Hebrew foreign-born.

Food or meals were given to 30.5 per cent of the number of cases reporting and to 33.9 per cent of the number of persons involved.

Medicine or medical assistance was given to 25.9 per cent of the number of cases reporting, involving 31.6 per cent of the number of persons. Of the cases in which the head was foreign-born 31.3 per cent were given this assistance and of the native-born 18.4 per cent. Of the cases in which the head was Hebrew foreign-born 52.5 per cent were assisted in this manner.

Cash was given to 14.5 per cent of the number of cases reporting, clothing to 12.5 per cent, and lodging to 8 per cent.

PERSONS PER CASE.

From Table 70 we find that the average number of persons per case is 3.75. The average number of persons per case of the cases in which the head is native-born is 3.42 and foreign-born 3.99.

A table showing the number and per cent of cases consisting of each specified number of persons follows:

TABLE 75.—Number and per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

More than one-half of the cases in which the head was foreign-born Italian consisted of 5 or more persons, and 20 out of the 302 foreign-born Hebrew cases consisted of 9 or more persons

"TYPE" OF CASE.

The cases were divided for further study into three divisions—cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children; cases consisting of widow, with or without children; and cases consisting of widower, with or without children. Under "widow" is included, besides the widowed, deserted, or divorced, the wives whose husbands were residing elsewhere and unmarried mothers living with their children. Cases consisting of persons other than husband, wife, or children, or cases in which there was neither husband nor wife, have been classed under "others."

Tables showing this classification follow:

Of the 1,663 cases, 834, or 50.2 per cent, consisted of husband and wife, with or without children; 502, or 30.2 per cent, consisted of widow, with or without children; 92, or 5.5 per cent, consisted of widower, with or without children; and 236, or 14.1 per cent, were classified under "others."

Among the cases in which the head was foreign-born, the Italians show the largest percentage of cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children, and the Irish the largest percentage consisting of widow, with or without children. Fifty per cent of the cases in which the head was a negro, native-born of native father, consisted of widow, with or without children.

The following table gives the number and per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife:

A very small proportion (5.9 per cent of the total number of cases assisted) consisted only of husband and wife.

AGE OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The number and per cent of persons reporting age involved in the cases assisted in each age group, by general nativity and race of head of case, is presented in the following table:

TABLE 79.—Number and per cent of persons within each age group, by general nativity and race of head of case.

It may be seen by the foregoing table that of the total number of persons involved in the cases reporting age, 50 per cent were under 16 years of age, 30.9 per cent were between the ages of 16 and 39, 16.2 per cent were between the ages of 40 and 59, and 3 per cent were 60 years of age or over. From General Table 12, Volume II, page 149, we learn that 44.6 per cent were 13 years of age or under, and 18.8 per cent were under 6 years of age.

CONJUGAL CONDITION OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The conjugal condition of the persons involved in the cases assisted 20 years of age or over is shown in the table following, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

On examining the table it is found that of the 2,685 persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition, 404, or 15 per cent, were single; 1,725, or 64.2 per cent, were married; and 556, or 20.7 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed. The foreign-born had a larger per cent of persons married and deserted, separated, or widowed, than the native-born. The native-born of foreign father had 51.6 per cent single persons. Comparing the sexes, we find 22.3 per cent of the males and 9.4 per cent of the females single; 72.9 per cent of the males and 57.4 per cent of the females married; and 4.8 per cent of the males and 33.2 per cent of the females deserted, separated, or widowed.

A study has been made of the cases where the wife was the head of the case and reported deserted, separated, or widowed. This information is found in the following tables:

The number of cases in which the wife was the head, and reported widowed, deserted, or separated was 506, or 30.5 per cent of the total number of cases. Of this number, 357, or 70.6 per cent, were widowed, and 149, or 29.4 per cent, were deserted or separated.

The cases in which the wife was the head and reported widowed represented 21.5 per cent of the total number of cases, and those reported deserted or separated 9 per cent. The negroes, native-born of native father, report 25 per cent where the head was a wife deserted or separated.

The foregoing table shows that out of 1,876 children 6 and under 16 years of age involved in the cases assisted 8.9 per cent were at home, 87 per cent were at school, and 4.1 per cent were at work.

The non-English-speaking races have a larger proportion of children at school than the English-speaking races, the Swedish, native-born of foreign father, having the highest per cent (95.2), and the English, native-born of foreign father, the lowest (82.1). The highest per cent of children at home was shown by the English, native-born of foreign father, and the lowest by the German, native-born of foreign father. The Germans, native-born of foreign father, have the greatest per cent of their number at work, and the Swedish, native-born of foreign father had none out of a total of 42 children.

Among the children, either foreign-born or native-born of foreign father, 6 and under 16 years of age, a larger proportion of females than males are at school and at work, while of the white, native-born of native father, the females show a smaller per cent at school and a greater per cent at home and at work.

The following table compares the children 6 and under 16 years of age of foreign parentage born in the United States and abroad and the white, native-born of native father.

The foreign-born make a far better showing than the native-born of native father, with but one exception, where the South Italians born in the United States had a larger proportion of their number at work.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The foreign-born cases assisted by the society in Brooklyn numbered 976. Of this number the period of residence in the United States of the head of the case was reported in 920 cases.

The table submitted below shows, by race, the years in the United States for the foreign-born heads of cases.

ABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

The ability to speak English for the non-English-speaking immigrant is given in the table following.

TABLE 87.—Per cent of persons 6 years of age or over who speak English, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

[This table includes only non-English-speaking races with 40 or more persons reporting. The totals, however, are for all non-English-speaking races.]

The non-English-speaking races, both native-born of foreign father and foreign-born, 6 years of age or over, involved in the cases assisted report 94.7 per cent speak the English language. Of the foreign-born 91.7 per cent speak English. When considering the proportion of these people who are recent immigrants, this is a good showing. The males exceed the females in their ability to speak English.

The following table gives the per cent, by race, of the foreign-born and native-born of foreign father, 6 years of age or over, who speak English.

It must be remembered that the South Italians and Hebrews assisted in Brooklyn are the most recent comers to the United States.

CITIZENSHIP.

The number and per cent of foreign-born males 21 years of age or over at the time of coming to the United States with a residence of five years or over having first and second naturalization papers is given in the following table:

TABLE 88.—Present political condition of foreign-born males who have been in the United States 5 years or over and who were 21 years of age or over at time of coming, by race of individual.

[This table includes only races with 20 or more males reporting. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

Of the 223 foreign-born males, 113, or 50.7 per cent, were citizens of the United States, and 23, or 10.3 per cent, had declared their intention to become citizens. Of the races represented in this table, the South Italian had the greatest proportion of aliens.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

BUFFALO.

The report for Buffalo, N. Y., covers all cases assisted by the Charity Organization Society from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909. The several races found in Buffalo are assisted by this society, with the exception of the Hebrews, who are taken care of by the Hebrew Society.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

The following table shows in detail, by general nativity and race of head of case, the number and per cent of the cases of each race assisted and the number and per cent of the persons involved in such cases:

[a] Less than 0.05 per cent.

The total number of cases assisted was 2,124, and the total number of persons represented in these cases was 9,045. The head of the case was native-born in 711 cases, or 33.5 per cent of the total number, and was foreign-born in 1,413 cases, or 66.5 per cent. There were practically twice as many foreign-born cases assisted as native-born, and included in the 711 native-born cases were 380 cases, or 12.9 per cent of the total number, in which the father of the head of the case was foreign-born.

The general nativity of heads of cases was as follows:

Native-born of foreign father	380
Native-born	711
Foreign-born	1,413
Total	2,124

It will be noted that the largest proportion for any one race is 32, represented by cases in which the head was foreign-born Polish. A much smaller per cent is shown for the other races, the white native-born of native father having 15 per cent, German foreign-born 11.1 per cent, South Italian foreign-born 9.1 per cent, German native-born of foreign father 7 per cent, Irish foreign-born 5.6 per cent, and Irish native-born of foreign father 5 per cent.

The persons involved in these cases show practically the same distribution among the different races.

Taking Table 1 as a basis, a selection of the races represented by 20 or more cases was made for a more detailed study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The following tables present the proportion of cases and persons involved, by race of head of case, for each class of apparent causes of need. These causes are given in more detail in General Tables 2-5, Volume II, pages 170–173.

TABLE 90.—Per cent of cases assisted for each specified class of apparent causes of need, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The per cent of the total number of cases and the per cent of the total number of persons involved reporting the different classes of apparent causes of need in the order of importance are as follows. It will be noted that the total of the per cents for each cause is more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	68.4	72.7
Death or disability of breadwinner	34.3	33.8
Death or disability of another member of family	19.1	20.0
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	16.1	15.7
Old age	9.2	3.9
Other	3.9	3.6

The cause showing the largest proportion of cases and persons involved is lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone or combined with other causes. Such a cause of need was reported in 68.4 per cent of the total number of cases assisted. Sixty-seven and two-tenths per cent of the foreign-born reported lack of employment or insufficient earnings, as compared with 70.7 per cent of the native-born and 71.8 per cent of the native-born of foreign father. The greater per cent of the cases of each race included in these tables report lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone or combined with other causes, as the apparent cause of need.

The per cent for races reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone or combined with other causes, as an apparent cause of need, is as follows:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
English, native-born of foreign father	83.1	88.1
Italian, South, foreign-born	78.4	81.6
Irish, foreign-born	78.2	86.4
English, foreign-born	73.8	77.1
Irish, native-born of foreign father	72.6	79.0
White, native-born of native father	70.1	75.1
Polish, native-born of foreign father	69.0	70.1
Polish, foreign-born	67.6	71.6
German, native-born of foreign father	65.1	68.2
Canadian (other than French), foreign-born	64.4	68.7
German, foreign-born	49.6	54.0

The cases in which the head is English native-born of foreign father show the largest proportion, 83.1, reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings as the apparent cause of need, and the foreign-born German the smallest proportion, 49.6. These two races present not only the largest and smallest proportion, but there is a considerable difference between the per cent shown by these races and the next in order. Of the first six races reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings, as shown in the outline, one race, the foreign-born South Italian, is a non-English-speaking race; of the last five races, four are non-English-speaking races.

The second most important apparent cause of need was death or disability of breadwinner. Under this general heading was included accident to breadwinner, death of breadwinner, and illness of breadwinner. The per cent of the total number of cases so reported, alone or combined with other causes, was 34.3, and of the total number of persons involved was 33.8. Thirty-five per cent of the cases where the head was foreign-born reported death or disability of breadwinner as an apparent cause of need, 32.9 per cent of the native-born, and 31.6 per cent of the native-born of foreign father.

The cases in which the head was foreign-born German assisted on account of death or disability of breadwinner show the greatest proportion, or a per cent of 41.5. This is closely followed by the German native-born of foreign father, reporting 38.3 per cent. The Polish native-born of foreign father show the smallest proportion reporting this cause, a per cent of 13.8.

The third most important apparent cause was death or disability of another member of family, which includes accident to another member of family, death of another member of family, and illness of another member of family. Twenty-one and one-tenth per cent of the cases in which heads were native-born and 18 per cent of the foreign-born gave death or disability of another member of family, alone or combined with other causes, as the apparent cause of need. The cases in which the head was foreign-born Canadian, other than French, had the greater per cent of cases, 27.4, classified under this cause of need, and the Polish native-born of foreign father the smaller per cent, 10.3 per cent.

Under neglect or bad habits of breadwinner are classed desertion of husband, incarceration of breadwinner, and neglect by breadwinner. Of the 2,124 cases assisted, 16.1 per cent gave neglect or bad habits of breadwinner, alone or combined with other causes, as the apparent cause of need. Of the total number of cases where the head was foreign-born, 13.9 per cent reported neglect or bad habits of breadwinner as compared with 20.4 per cent of the cases where the head was native-born, and 19.2 per cent where the head was native-born of foreign father.

The cases in which the head was Polish native-born of foreign father head this list, having 34.5 per cent of their total number reporting neglect or bad habits of bread-winner, while the foreign-born South Italian show that only 6.2 per cent were assisted on this account. Four of the other races reported under this class have about the same proportion of cases—the Irish native-born of foreign father 24.5 per cent; Canadian, other than French foreign-born, 23.3 per cent; white native-born of native father 21.4 per cent; and English native-born of foreign father 19.7 per cent.

Old age, alone, or combined with other causes, was reported as an apparent cause of need in 9.2 per cent of the total number of cases. This cause was given in 4.8 per cent of the cases where the head was native-born, 5 per cent of those native-born of foreign father, and 11.5 per cent of those of the foreign-born. The foreign-born Irish and German show the largest proportion of cases reporting old age as an apparent cause of need, the former having a per cent of 21.8 and the latter 20.3. The other races report a small proportion of cases in this class of causes. The table showing the percentage of persons involved in the cases reporting old age as an apparent cause of need shows a much smaller number of persons involved under this class, due to the fact that the cases in which this cause is given consist, with but few exceptions, of from one to three individuals.

AID GIVEN.

Classification of the aid given was made under ten headings,[a] and the six containing the greater number of cases were chosen for more detailed showings.

The aid furnished by the society is shown in the following table:

Noted in the order of their importance, with the per cent of cases and per cent of persons involved, the aid given was as follows. A case may have received more than one kind of assistance and will, therefore, appear under more than one heading.

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.

Fuel	64.8	66.7
Employment secured	33.5	34.3

Medicine or medical attendance	6.8	7.2

As seen by referring to the foregoing tables, food or meals, alone, or with other assistance, were provided in 83.1 per cent of the total number of cases and for 83.7 per cent of the total number of persons involved in the cases assisted. Of the cases in which the head was foreign-born, 85.2 per cent were furnished this assistance, of the native-born 79 per cent, and of the native-born of foreign father 78.2 per cent. Considering the races, 90.1 per cent of the cases in which the head was foreign-born Polish were found in need of food or meals. The per cent of cases for the other races varies little, from 87.1 to 75.3 per cent. Similar proportions are shown for the persons involved.

received this assistance in 69.4 per cent, the native-born in 55.6 per cent, and the native-born of foreign father in 55.5 per cent. The per cent for the races given fuel range from 76.8 of the cases in which the head was foreign-born Polish to 47.9 of the native-born of foreign father English.

Employment was secured in 33.5 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 34.3 per cent of the total number of persons. Of the total number of cases in which the head was foreign-born, 30.8 per cent were aided by having employment secured, of the native-born cases 38.8 per cent, and of the native-born of foreign father 41.6 per cent. Out of the 2,124 cases assisted, 68.4 per cent reported lack of employment or insufficient earnings and 33.5 per cent were given employment.

Rent was given to 13.8 per cent of the total number of cases, clothing to 7.3 per cent, and medicine or medical assistance to 6.8 per cent.

PERSONS PER CASE.

The total number of persons involved in the cases assisted was 9,045. Of this number 4,366 were males and 4,679 were females.[a]

Taking figures from Table 1, we find the average number of persons per case was 4.26. The cases where the head was foreign-born averaged 4.38 persons to a case, the native-born of foreign father 4.11 persons, and the native-born 4.01 persons.

The number and per cent of cases consisting of each specified number of persons is presented in the following table:

TABLE 94.—Number and per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[a] See General Table 12, Vol. II, pp. 183-185.

"TYPE" OF CASE.

In order to further study the cases, they were divided into three groups: First, cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children; second, cases consisting of widow, with or without children; and third, cases consisting of widower, with or without children. Cases that could not be classified under one of these three groupings were tabulated as "others." For example, a case where the head was single; a case consisting of husband, wife, children, and husband's mother; a case consisting of widow, daughter, and grandchildren; a case consisting of brother and sister, etc. Stepchildren and adopted children were tabulated as children.

This grouping is presented in the tables which follow:

TABLE 95.—Number of cases consisting of husband and wife, widow, or widower, with each specified number of children, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The cases assisted by the society consisted of husband and wife, with or without children, in 1,339 cases, or 63 per cent of the total number; of widow with or without children, in 708 cases, or 33.3 per cent, and of widower, with or without children, in 25 cases, or 1.2 per cent. The cases in which the head was native-born have the larger per cent (65.4) consisting of husband and wife, with or without children, and the foreign-born the larger per cent (34.9) of cases consisting of widow, with or without children.

Owing to the fact that 234 cases, or 11 per cent of the total number, consisted only of husband and wife, a special study was made of these cases, tabulating by age of head of case and cause of need.

A table showing the cases consisting only of husband and wife by race of head of case follows:

TABLE 97.—Number and per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife, by general nativity and race of head of case.

Of the cases in which the head was native-born 12.5 per cent consisted only of husband and wife, and of the foreign-born 10.3 per cent. The cases in which the head was Irish native-born of foreign father had 18.9 per cent consisting only of husband and wife, the English native-born of foreign father 18.3 per cent, the English foreign-born 18 per cent, and the German foreign-born 16.9 per cent.

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone or combined with other causes, was the chief cause of need reported by the cases consisting only of husband and wife, having 63.7 per cent so reported. Old age comes next in importance, with 32.1 per cent. As shown by Table 99, in 44.4 per cent of these cases the head of the case was 60 years of age or over.

Disability of husband was reported in 31.6 per cent of the cases, death or disability of another member of the family in 15 per cent, and neglect or bad habits of husband in 7.7 per cent.

Old age was reported a cause of need in 46.9 per cent of the cases in which the husband was foreign-born, and only 7.9 per cent of the native-born. No such marked difference appears in the other causes.

The age of the husband is shown in the following table:

The table shows that 58.5 per cent of the husbands in the cases consisting of only husband and wife were 50 years of age or over, 71.9 per cent of the husbands who were native-born were under 50 years of age, while 77.3 per cent of the husbands who were foreign-born were 50 years of age or over. Of the husbands who were Irish native-born of foreign father 85 per cent were under 50 years of age, and of those white native-born of native father 70 per cent were under 40 years of age.[a] Over 65 per cent of the husbands Polish foreign-born and German foreign-born were 60 years of age or over, and 35.6 per cent of the Polish foreign-born were 70 years of age or over.

The total number of persons 20 years of age and over involved in the cases assisted was 3,699. Of this number 235, or 6.4 per cent, were single; 2,735, or 73.9 per cent, were married; 729, or 19.7 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed. Dividing them by sex, 8.3 per cent of the total number of males and 5 per cent of the total number of females were single; 89.7 per cent of the total number of males and 63.1 per cent of the total number of females were married; 2 per cent of the total number of males and 32 per cent of the total number of females were deserted, separated, or widowed.

The foreign-born show the largest per cent of both married and deserted, separated, or widowed, and the smallest per cent of single persons. The large per cent (47.7) of males, Polish, native-born of foreign father, who were single is due to the fact that practically all were between the ages of 20 and 29.

Taking the cases where the wife was the head of the case reported as deserted, separated, or widowed, the following tables show the number and per cent widowed, and deserted, or separated:

There are practically no divorces among the people seeking aid from the societies, and the terms deserted and separated are almost synonymous, and have been combined.

Of the 678 cases where the wife was reported deserted, separated, or widowed, 528 cases, or 77.9 per cent, were reported widowed, and 150 cases, or 22.1 per cent, deserted or separated. There were 7.1 per cent of the total number of cases reported deserted or separated. The per cent of such cases is smaller among the foreign-born than the native-born. The foreign-born Canadian, other than French, have the largest per cent so reported, and the foreign-born South Italian the smallest.

GENERAL OCCUPATION OF CHILDREN.

A study was made of the occupation of children 6 and under 16 years of age, by sex and general nativity and race of individual. The table following gives the proportion of children in this age group at home, at school, and at work.

Of the 3,049 children reported 6 and under 16 years of age, 86 per cent were at school, 9.8 per cent were at home, and 4.2 per cent were at work. The Polish, both foreign-born and native-born of foreign father, show the smallest per cent of children at school; the German native-born of foreign father show the largest per cent of children at home. There was but slight difference between the males and females.

The same data are shown in the following table grouping the races according to birthplace of child.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The total number of cases where the head was foreign-born was 1,412. A table showing the years the foreign-born heads of cases have been in the United States follows.

TABLE 106.—Number and per cent of foreign-born heads of cases in the United States each specified number of years, by race of head of case.

The foregoing table indicates that a large per cent of the foreign-born assisted by the society (42.7) have been in the United States twenty years or over, 7.9 per cent under five years, 23.8 per cent under ten years, and 57.3 per cent under twenty years. The South Italian was the most recent comer; 14.4 per cent of the cases where the race of the head of the case was South Italian were in the United States less than five years, while only 8.8 per cent were here twenty years or over. The Irish show only 4.2 per cent in the United States less than ten years and 78.2 per cent in the United States twenty years or over.

Tabulating years in the United States by race of individual brings out practically the same results as shown in the table by race of head of case.

The non-English-speaking races, both native-born of foreign father and foreign-born, 6 years of age or over, involved in the cases assisted by the Charity Association Society, report 81.5 per cent able to speak the English language, and of the foreign-born alone 69.2 per cent. When considering that the greater per cent of the foreign-born are not recent comers, this is a rather poor showing. The males exceed the females in their ability to speak English. The following table gives the per cent, by race, of the foreign-born and native-born of foreign father, 6 years of age or over, who speak English:

A marked improvement is shown in the second generation of these races. It must be remembered that in Buffalo the South Italians are the most recent comers to the United States.

The following table shows the number and per cent of foreign-born males, 21 years of age or over at the time of coming to the United States, who have their first and second naturalization papers:

Of this number 51.9 per cent were fully naturalized, 12.9 per cent had first papers only, and 35.2 per cent were aliens. The Polish show the largest per cent of aliens.

CHICAGO, ILL.

CHICAGO.

The report for the city of Chicago covers the assistance given by the Bureau of Charities for the period from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909. On April 1, 1909, the Relief and Aid Society was consolidated with the Bureau of Charities to form the United Charities of Chicago, and from that date the aid furnished by the two societies was recorded.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

a Not computed, owing to small number involved.

The total number of cases assisted was 3,125, involving 14,123 persons. The number of cases in which the head was foreign-born was 1,978, or 63.3 per cent of the total number, involving 9,391 persons, or 66.5 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was native-born numbered 1,147, or 36.7 per cent of the total number, involving 4,732 persons, or 33.5 per cent of the total number of persons. Included with the total native-born were 435 cases, or 13.9 per cent of the total number of cases, in which the head was native-born of foreign father, involving 1,938 persons, or 13.7 per cent of the total number of persons.

The races represented by 20 or more cases, in the order of their number, follows:

The greatest proportion of the work done was for the cases in which the head was Polish foreign-born, having 624 cases assisted, or 20 per cent of the total number, involving 3,189 persons, or 22.6 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was white native-born of native father, follows with 557 cases, or 17.8 per cent, involving 2,267 persons, or 16.1 per cent. By referring to the foregoing table the races assisted, together with the number and per cent of cases and persons involved, may be noted. A very small proportion of the Hebrews are assisted by the United Charities, owing to there being an active Hebrew society in Chicago which cares for members of that race.

The races represented by 20 or more cases have been selected for further study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The cause of seeking assistance from the society has been classified under 14 separate headings [a] and further grouped under five classes of apparent causes of need. The per cent of cases and persons involved reporting each specified class of apparent cause of need is shown in the tables which follow, by general nativity and race of head of case. It will be noted that the percentage for each race totals more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

The per cent of cases and persons involved for each class of apparent causes of need were as follows:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	58.3	60.6
Death or disability of breadwinner	33.5	32.6
Death or disability of another member of family	29.0	31.8
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	26.2	28.4
Old age	3.9	1.6
Other	10.5	10.8

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings alone or along with other causes was found to be the chief cause of need, having 58.3 per cent of the cases, involving 60.6 per cent of the total number of persons, so reported. The proportion of cases for each race reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings as a cause of need varies from 80 per cent of the cases in which the head was South Italian foreign-born, to 44.5 per cent of the cases in which the head was Irish foreign-born. The white native-born of native father reported this class of causes in 59.6 per cent of such cases.

Death or disability of breadwinner includes accident, illness, or death of breadwinner, and was reported, either alone or along with other causes, in 33.5 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 32.6 per cent of the total number of persons. The race reporting the largest per cent (41.7) of cases seeking assistance on account of death or disability of breadwinner is the English foreign-born, and the smallest per cent (14) is the Slovak foreign-born.

Death or disability of another member of family includes accident, illness, or death of another member of family. This apparent cause of need, alone or along with other causes, was found in 29 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 31.8 per cent of the total number of persons.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner, alone or along with other causes, was reported the apparent cause of need in 26.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 28.4 per cent of the total number of persons. Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner includes desertion by husband, incarceration of breadwinner, intemperance of breadwinner, and neglect by breadwinner. This cause was reported in 23.5 per cent of the cases where the head was foreign-born, in 31.1 per cent of the cases where the head was native-born, and in 35.2 per cent of the cases where the head was native-born of foreign father.

Old age was the cause of need in 3.9 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 1.6 per cent of the total number of persons.

The term "widow," as used in these tables, includes, besides the widowed, deserted, or divorced, those wives whose husbands are residing elsewhere and unmarried mothers living with their children.

The above tables show that 1,639 cases, or 52.4 per cent of the total number, consisted of husband and wife, with or without children. The greatest proportion of these cases consisted of husband and wife with from 3 to 5 children. The cases consisting of widow, with or without children, numbered 1,050, or 33.6 per cent of the total number. Like the cases consisting of husband and wife, the greatest proportion of the cases consisted of widow with from 3 to 5 children. The cases consisting of widower, with or without children, numbered 94, or 3 per cent of the total number of cases. Out of the 94 cases, 43 consisted of widower alone.

The cases in which the head was Norwegian foreign-born, show the highest per cent (65.9 per cent) consisting of widow with or without children.

Owing to the proportion of cases consisting only of husband and wife reported by some cities, a table showing the number and per cent of these cases as compared with the total number is given on the next page.

Of the 14,093 persons involved in the cases assisted who reported age, 7,986, or 56.7 per cent, were under 16 years of age. From General Table 12, Volume II, page 218, it will be noted that 7,253 persons, or 51.5 per cent, were under 14 years of age, and that 3,087, or 21.9 per cent, were under 6 years of age. Only 14.7 per cent of the total number of persons reporting age were 40 years of age or over, and but 2.5 per cent were 60 years of age or over.

CONJUGAL CONDITION OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The conjugal condition of the persons 20 years of age or over involved in the cases assisted is shown by race of individual and sex in the following table:

It appears that out of the 5,264 persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition, 3,528, or 67 per cent, are married; 1,207, or 22.9 per cent, are deserted, separated, or widowed; and 529, or 10 per cent, are single. The foreign-born had the largest per cent of persons married and also the largest per cent deserted, separated, or divorced. The South Italian foreign-born had 26 persons, or 27.7 per cent of their total number, reported single, all of whom are males. The negro native-born of native father report the largest per cent (39.5) deserted, separated, or widowed. The smallest per cent under this heading was for the South Italian foreign-born.

Comparing the males and females, 81.5 per cent of the males and 57.1 per cent of the females are married; 3.2 per cent of the males and 36.5 per cent of the females are deserted, separated, or widowed; and 15.4 per cent of the males and 6.4 per cent of the females are single.

The following table gives the number and per cent of cases in which the wife is the head and reported widowed and deserted or separated:

The number of cases in which the wife is the head of the case and reported widowed, deserted, or separated was 1,081, or 34.6 per cent of the total number of cases. Of this number, 676, or 62.5 per cent, were widowed, and 405, or 37.5 per cent, were deserted or separated. In 21.6 per cent of the total number of cases the head of the case was a widow, and in 13 per cent the head of the case was a wife reported deserted or separated. The foreign-born show 24 per cent where the head was widowed, while the native-born show 17.6 per cent. The cases where the head was a wife reported deserted or separated number 191, or 9.7 per cent for the foreign-born and 214, or 18.7 per cent, for the native-born. The Norwegians foreign-born, show the largest per cent (50) of cases in which the head is a widow, and the negro native-born of native father, the largest per cent (24.5) of cases in which the head is a wife reported deserted or separated.

Table 123 shows by sex and general nativity and race of individual the occupation of the children 6 and under 16 years of age. The per cent of the children at school was 87.4, at home 7.4, and at work 5.2. The Canadian, other than French, native-born of foreign father, had the largest per cent (19.1) at home, and the Bohemian and Moravian, native-born of foreign father, had the largest per cent (9.8) at work.

Table 124 gives a comparison of the occupation of children 6 and under 16 years of age of the first and second generation immigrant and of the white native-born of native father, by general nativity and race of father. The greatest difference is shown by the Germans, with 86.7 per cent of the United States born and 57.1 per cent of the foreign-born at school, 6.1 per cent of the United States born and 32.1 per cent of the foreign-born at home, and 7.2 per cent of the United States born and 10.7 per cent of the foreign-born at work. Of the children whose fathers were South Italian, 90.9 per cent of the United States born and 81.1 per cent of the foreign-born were at school, 1.5 per cent of the United States born and 16.2 per cent of the foreign-born were at home, and 7.6 per cent of the United States born and 2.7 per cent of the foreign-born were at work; while on the other hand the children whose fathers were Bohemian and Moravian, Lithuanian, and Polish show on the whole a smaller proportion at school and a larger proportion at home and at work.

A study of the cases in which the head was foreign-born and of the individuals who were foreign-born has been made according to length of residence in the United States, ability to speak the English language, and citizenship.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The following table shows years in the United States for the heads of cases:

TABLE 125.—Number and per cent of foreign-born heads of cases in the United States each specified number of years, by race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 20 or more cases, as shown in Table 110. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

It will be noted from this table that of the total number of heads of cases 57.9 per cent had been in the United States less than twenty years. Of this number 13 per cent had been here less than five years and 29.9 per cent had been here less than ten years. The Norwegians, Scotch, and Irish show the greatest per cent of heads of cases in the United States twenty years or over, having 76.7, 71.4, and 68.8 per cents, respectively.

The races showing 25 or more per cent of the heads of cases in the United States less than five years are as follows:

[a] Not computed, owing to small number involved.

It is found that of the 6,237 persons 6 years of age or over of the non-English-speaking races first and second generation immigrant, 82.5 per cent speak English. Of the foreign-born, or first-generation immigrant, 67.7 per cent speak English, while of the native-born of foreign father, or second-generation immigrant, 97.6 per cent speak English. With the exception of the native-born of foreign father, the males exceed the females in the proportion speaking English.

The races showing the lowest per cent of persons speaking the English language are Slovak 51.1 per cent, Lithuanian 54.9 per cent, Polish 55.2 per cent, South Italian 61.9 per cent, Magyar 64.2 per cent, Bohemian and Moravian 66.1 per cent, and Hebrew 66.7 per cent. The German second generation, Swedish foreign-born, Norwegian foreign-born, Dutch foreign-born, Polish second generation, and German foreign-born show a very large per cent speaking English, the per cents ranging from 99.9 per cent for the German second generation to 91.7 per cent for the German foreign-born.

The following statement compares the ability to speak English of the races foreign-born and native-born of foreign father shown in Table 127:

	Foreign-born.	Native-born of foreign father.

The most recent comers to the United States assisted by the society were the Magyar, Hebrew, and Slovak. These races had not sufficient numbers, native-born of foreign father, to admit of comparison. The South Italian and Lithuanian also are recent comers to the United States.

CITIZENSHIP.

The number and per cent of the foreign-born males 21 years of age or over on arrival in the United States with a residence of five years or more who have first and second naturalization papers is shown in the following table:

The political condition of males 21 years of age or over at the time of coming to the United States who had been here five years or more was reported for 641 individuals. Of this number, 373 males, or 58.2 per cent, are fully naturalized, and 55, or 8.6 per cent, have first papers. The Irish show the greatest per cent (91.6) who have become citizens and the Polish the smallest per cent (38.9). The Bohemians and Moravians also show a large per cent of aliens.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

CINCINNATI.

The report for Cincinnati, Ohio, was furnished by the Associated Charities and includes all the cases assisted by the society from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909.

[a] Less than 0.05 per cent.

During the period of the investigation 1,842 cases were assisted, involving 7,112 persons. The cases in which the head was native-born comprise the larger proportion having 1,718 cases, or 93.3 per cent of the total number, consisting of 6,621 persons, or 93.1 per cent of the total number of persons. The number of cases in which the head was foreign-born was 124, or 6.7 per cent of the total number of cases, consisting of 491 persons, or 6.9 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was native-born of foreign father show a total of 326, or 17.7 per cent of the total number of cases, with 1,284 persons involved, or 18.1 per cent of the total number of persons.

The white native-born of native father, received the largest share of the assistance given by the society; 1,164 cases, or 63.2 per cent of the total, were assisted. These cases involved 4,539 persons, or 63.8 per cent of the total number of persons. In 12.4 per cent of the cases the heads were negro native-born of native father, in 10.7 per cent native-born of German father, in 4.6 per cent native-born of Irish father, in 2.9 per cent foreign-born German, and in 1.1 per cent foreign-born Irish. The remaining races noted in the table show but a small number of cases assisted. But few Hebrews were assisted, due to the fact that the Hebrew Charity Society is very active in assisting members of this race.

The races represented by 20 or more cases have been selected for more detailed study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The apparent causes for seeking assistance from the society are shown in the following tables. These causes are given in more detail in General Tables 2–5, Volume II, pages 240–243.

The per cent of cases and persons involved for each class of apparent causes, in the order of their importance, follows. It will be noted that the total of the per cents for each cause is more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	75.8	79.4
Death or disability of breadwinner	23.2	21.9
Death or disability of another member of family	17.4	19.7
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	14.2	14.7
Old age	2.9	1.3
Other	5.0	4.9

As shown in the outline above, lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone or along with other causes, was reported as a cause of need in 75.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 79.4 per cent of the total number of persons.

Sickness or death is classified under two headings—death or disability of breadwinner and death or disability of another member of family; the former is reported in 23.2 per cent and the latter in 17.4 per cent of the total number of cases.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner was given as the cause of need in 14.2 per cent and old age in 2.9 per cent of the total number of cases.

AID GIVEN.

The aid furnished by the society is presented in the following tables showing the per cent of cases and the per cent of persons involved for each specified aid given. More detailed information may be found in General Tables 6 and 7, Volume II, pages 244 and 245. A case may have been furnished more than one kind of assistance and will, therefore, appear under more than one heading.

Clothing, alone or along with other assistance, was furnished to 40.7 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 51.2 per cent of the total number of persons.

Employment was secured for 38.3 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 37 per cent of the total number of persons. Of the cases in which the head was foreign-born, 48.4 per cent were assisted by securing employment, as compared with 37.6 per cent of the native-born. A larger per cent of the cases in which the head was foreign-born German and Irish were furnished employment than the cases in which the head was native-born of German and Irish parentage.

Food or meals, alone or along with other assistance, was given to 27.7 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 26 per cent of the total number of persons; fuel to 22.6 per cent of the cases, involving 21.1 per cent of the persons; cash to 15.6 per cent of the cases, involving 15.2 per cent of the persons; and medicine or medical assistance to 5.8 per cent of the cases, involving 6.1 per cent of the persons.

PERSONS PER CASE.

From Table 1 we find that the number of persons per case for the cases in which the head was native-born average 3.85 and for the cases in which the head was foreign-born 3.96.

The total number of persons involved in the cases assisted was 7,112. As shown by General Tables 12, Volume II, pages 252 and 253, there were 3,334 males and 3,778 females involved in the cases assisted.

The following table presents the number and per cent of cases, by race of head of case, consisting of each specified number of persons.

It is shown that of the 1,842 cases, 1,065, or 57.8 per cent, consisted of husband and wife, with or without children; 582, or 31.6 per cent, consisted of widow, with or without children; and 59, or 3.2 per cent, consisted of widower, with or without children. Two-thirds of the 222 persons living alone were widows.

Owing to the number of cases consisting only of husband and wife, the following tables are shown.

The following table shows the number and per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife:

TABLE 137.—Number and per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 10 or more cases consisting only of husband and wife. The totals, however, are for all races.]

It will be noted that 188 out of 1,842 cases, or 10.2 per cent, consisted only of husband and wife. The cases in which the head was negro native-born of native father show the largest per cent of such, or 15.8.

The following table gives the causes of seeking assistance for the cases consisting only of husband and wife.

TABLE 138.—Per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife assisted for each specified class of apparent causes of need, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife reporting each specified class of apparent causes of need are:

	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	75.0
Disability of husband	25.5
Death or disability of another member of family	20.2
Neglect or bad habits of husband	8.5
Old age	8.0
Other	4.3

Only 8 per cent of the cases consisting only of husband and wife report old age alone, or along with other causes, as the cause of need. The cases in which the husband was foreign-born show 18.8 per cent so reported, native-born of foreign father 10.5 per cent, and the native-born of both native and foreign father 7 per cent.

Lack of employment alone, or along with other causes, was reported in 75 per cent of the total number of cases. The cases in which the head was German second generation have the smallest per cent (65) of cases reporting this as a cause of need.

The other causes, according to their importance, are disability of husband, death or disability of another member of family, and neglect or bad habits of husband.

The table next submitted gives the age of the husband in the cases consisting only of husband and wife.

TABLE 139.—Age of head of case where case consists only of husband and wife, by general nativity and race of head of case.

Total foreign-born	16	7	3	3	3	43.8	18.8	18.8	18.8

The largest per cent (66) of the cases show the age of the husband less than 50 years. The foreign-born have a larger per cent (56.4) of husbands 50 years of age or over and the native-born a larger per cent (68) less than 50 years of age. Thirty-seven and sixth-tenths per cent of the total number of husbands foreign-born gave their age as 60 years or over.

The negro native-born of native father show 88.9 per cent under 50 years of age, and by referring to General Table 11, p. 251, it will be seen that 27 out of the 36 husbands were less than 40 years of age.

AGE OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The number of persons reporting age is shown in the following table, giving the number and per cent under each age group, by race of head of case:

TABLE 140.—Number and per cent of persons within each age group, by general nativity and race of head of case.

It may be noted that 3,459 out of a total of 7,105 persons reporting were under 16 years of age, or 48.7 per cent. As shown in General Table 12, page 254, 3,093 persons, or 43.5 per cent, were under 14 years of age, and further that 1,097 persons, or 15.4 per cent, were under 6 years of age. Practically three-fourths of the total number reporting age were under 40 years. The persons belonging to cases in which the head was foreign-born Irish have the largest per cent, 40 years of age or over.

CONJUGAL CONDITION OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The conjugal condition of persons 20 years of age or over involved in the cases assisted is shown in the following table, by sex and race of individual:

Of the 3,153 persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition, 261, or 8.3 per cent, were single; 2,196, or 69.9 per cent were married; and 696, or 22.1 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed.

Separating by sex, it may be seen that 12.8 per cent of the males and 4.9 per cent of the females were single; 81.7 per cent of the males and 60.7 per cent of the females were married; and 5.4 per cent of the males, and 34.4 per cent of the females were deserted, separated, or widowed.

Comparing the number of cases in which the wife is the head and reported widowed, deserted, or separated with the total number of cases and with the total number so reported, the following tables are presented:

The total number of cases in which the wife is the head of the case and reported deserted, separated, or widowed is 608. Of this number, 388, or 63.8 per cent were widowed and 220, or 36.2 per cent, were deserted or separated. The negro native-born of native father, shows the largest per cent reported deserted or separated and the foreign-born German the smallest. The cases in which the head is a widow represent 21.1 per cent of the total number of cases, and and those in which the head is a wife reported deserted or separated represent 11.9 per cent.

GENERAL OCCUPATION OF CHILDREN.

The occupation of the children between the ages of 6 and 16 years involved in the cases assisted are presented in the following table:

TABLE 144.—Per cent of children 6 and under 16 years of age at home, at school, and at work, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

The children 6 and under 16 years of age involved in the cases assisted number 2,362. The per cent of these children at school was 88.4, at home 5.8, and at work 5.8. The foreign-born show a greater tendency to remain at home. A larger proportion of the negro native-born of native father, and foreign-born German children are at work than the white native-born of native father.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The number of cases assisted by the Cincinnati society whose heads were foreign-born was small. The data in detail are shown in the general tables.

The years in the United States are given below for the heads of the cases who were foreign-born.

TABLE 145.—Number and per cent of foreign-born heads of cases in the United States each specified number of years, by race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 20 or more cases, as shown in Table 129. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

Race of head of case.	Number reporting complete data.	Number in United States each specified number of years—				Per cent in United States each specified number of years—

Of the 122 foreign-born heads of cases, 64, or 52.5 per cent, have been in the United States twenty years or over. Eleven and five-tenths per cent of the total number have been in the United States less than five years, and 26.2 per cent have been in the United States less than ten years. The German assisted in Cincinnati is a more recent comer to the United States than the Irish.

Taking each individual who was foreign-born, the years in the United States, by race of individual, is shown in the following table:

TABLE 146.—Number and per cent of foreign-born persons in the United States each specified number of years, by race of individual.

[This table includes only races with 40 or more persons reporting. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

Total	236	50	50	45	91	21.2	42.4	61.4	38.6

Of the 236 persons who were foreign-born reporting years in the United States, 61.4 per cent were in the United States less than twenty years. The scattering races shown in the General Table 17, Volume II, page 264, are the more recent comers. Also it may be seen that the females included in the table have been in the United States for a longer period than the males.

ABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

The ability to speak the English language for the non-English-speaking races is shown in the following table:

TABLE 147.—Per cent of persons 6 years of age or over who speak English, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

[This table includes only non-English-speaking races with 40 or more persons reporting. The totals, however, are for all non-English-speaking races.]

Total foreign-born	91	98	189	63.7	64.3	64.0

The number of non-English-speaking persons, both foreign-born and of the second generation 6 years of age or over, reporting ability to speak English is 654. Of this number, 85.2 per cent speak the English language. The foreign-born show a total of 189 persons reporting and with but 64 per cent of that number able to speak English. Comparing the second-generation German with the foreign-born German, the foreign-born have 72.2 per cent speaking English, while the native-born of German father have 92.8 per cent speaking English. There is no marked difference in the ability to speak English between the males and females.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

MINNEAPOLIS.

The Minneapolis, Minn., reports compiled for the charity investigation of the Immigration Commission were made by the Associated Charities of that city and include all cases assisted from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

The following table presents in detail, by general nativity and race of head of case, the cases assisted and the persons involved in such cases.

a Less than 0.05 per cent.

The total number of cases reporting race of head assisted by the Associated Charities, Minneapolis, Minn., was 1,088, and the total number of persons involved in these cases was 4,161.

Of the total number of cases, 566, or 52 per cent, were cases in which the head of the case was foreign-born, and 522, or 48 per cent, were cases in which the head of the case was native-born. Included with the native-born were 211 cases, or 19.4 per cent of the total number of cases, in which the head was native-born of foreign father, or second-generation immigrant.

Of the total number of persons assisted, 2,359, or 56.7 per cent, were persons involved in cases in which the head was foreign-born, and 1,802, or 43.3 per cent, were persons involved in cases in which the head was native-born. Included with the native-born were 722 persons, or 17.4 per cent of the total number of persons, involved in cases in which the head of the case was native-born of foreign father.

The races represented by 20 or more cases, together with the number and per cent of cases and persons involved, are as follows:

Race.	Cases assisted.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
White, native-born of native father	285	26.2	1,003	24.1

Negro, native-born of native father	25	2.3	72	1.7
English, foreign-born	21	1.9	55	1.3

The greatest proportion of the assistance was given to the white native-born of native father, with 285 cases, or 26.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 1,003 persons, or 24.1 per cent of the total number of persons involved. Among the foreign-born the Swedish, Norwegian, Hebrew, German, Irish, Polish, and English were the races assisted by the society and represented by cases ranging in the order named from 137 to 21.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The classes of apparent causes of need are shown, by general nativity and race of head of case, for the cases and persons involved, in the tables which follow. It will be noted that the percentages for each race total more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

The classes of apparent causes of need, together with the per cent of cases and persons involved, are as follows:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	39.8	40.7
Death or disability of another member of family	37.1	45.6
Death or disability of breadwinner	34.2	30.9
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	26.0	28.0
Old age	7.2	3.2
Other	17.5	16.0

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone, or along with other causes, was the apparent cause of need in 39.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 40.7 per cent of the total number of persons. The foreign cases reported this cause of need in 37.8 per cent of their cases and the native-born in 42 per cent. The cases in which the head was German foreign-born had the greatest per cent (49.1) of cases and the Hebrew foreign-born, the smallest per cent (15.8) of cases reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings as an apparent cause of need.

Death or disability of another member of family, alone, or along with other causes, was reported in 37.1 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 45.6 per cent of the total number of persons. Included in this class are accident, illness, or death of another member of family. The foreign-born reported this cause of need in 42.8 per cent of their cases and the native-born in 31 per cent. The cases in which the head was Hebrew foreign-born had the largest per cent (67.1), and the Irish native-born of foreign father, the smallest per cent (16.7) of cases reporting this cause of need.

Death or disability of breadwinner, alone, or along with other causes, was the apparent cause of need in 34.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 30.9 per cent of the total number of persons. Included in this class are accident, illness, or death of breadwinner.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner includes desertion by husband, incarceration of breadwinner, intemperance of breadwinner, and neglect by breadwinner. This class of causes, alone, or along with other causes, was reported in 26 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 28 per cent of the total number of persons. The foreign-born reported this cause in 24.4 per cent of their cases and the native-born in 27.8 per cent. The cases in which the head was Norwegian native-born of foreign father show the largest per cent (42.9) of cases so reported and the Hebrew foreign-born, the smallest per cent (9.2).

Old age, alone, or along with other causes, was reported in 7.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 3.2 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was Irish, foreign-born, show the largest proportion of cases, or 20.5 per cent, so reported.

AID GIVEN.

The aid furnished by the society is shown in the following tables for the cases and persons involved, by general nativity and race of head of case. Like the tables showing the causes of need, the per cents will not total 100.

Fuel was given to 23.3 per cent, employment secured for 18.1 per cent, clothing to 15.2 per cent, medicine or medical assistance to 11.9 per cent, and cash to 7.5 per cent of the total number of cases.

PERSONS PER CASE.

From Table 148 it may be noted that the average number of persons per case was 3.82. The average number of persons per case of the cases in which the head was foreign-born was 4.17, and of the cases in which the head was native-born was 3.45.

A table showing, by general nativity and race of head of case, the number and per cent of cases consisting of each specified number of persons follows:

TABLE 153.—Number and per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 20 or more cases, as shown in Table 148. The totals, however, are for all races.]

The tables show that 541 cases, or 49.7 per cent of the total number consisted of husband and wife, with or without children. The greater proportion of these cases consist of husband and wife with from 3 to 5 children. The cases consisting of widow, with or without children were 319, or 29.3 per cent of the total number. The term "widow" as used in these tables includes, besides the widowed, deserted, and divorced, those wives whose husbands are residing elsewhere and unmarried mothers living with their children. The larger proportion of these cases consisted of widow with either 1 or 2 children. The cases consisting of widower, with or without children, are 54, or 5 per cent, and of this number 33 cases consisted of the widower alone.

Cases in which there are persons other than husband, wife and children and cases in which there is neither husband nor wife has been classed as "others." Cases under this class numbered 174, and of this number 126 consisted of but 1 person.

The table following giving the number and per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife, as compared with the total number assisted, is next presented.

Total native-born	1,104	10.1	86.1	3.7
Total foreign-born	147	8.2	89.8	2.0

A total of 1,251 children 6 and under 16 years of age were involved in the cases assisted. Of this number, 86.6 per cent were at school, 9.9 per cent at home, and 3.5 per cent at work.

The proportion of children at school for the foreign-born was 89.8, the native-born of foreign father 85.7, and the white native-born of native father, 87. The proportion of children at home for the foreign-born was 9.9 per cent, native-born of foreign father, 10.4 per cent, and the white native-born of native father, 9.5. The proportion of children at work for the foreign-born was 2, the native-born of foreign father, 3.9, and the white native-born of native father, 3.5.

The Hebrew foreign-born children show the largest percentage (90.7) at school, the Hebrew native-born of foreign father, the largest percentage (20.6) at home, and the Norwegian native-born of foreign father the largest percentage (9.3) at work.

A comparison of the first and second generation of immigrant races and the native-born of native father, as to the occupation of children involved in the cases assisted, is shown in the following table:

TABLE 162.—Number and per cent of children 6 and under 16 years of age at home, at school, and at work, by general nativity and race of father and by birthplace of child.

[This table includes only races with 20 or more children born in the United States, and also 20 or more children born abroad. The native-born of native father are shown for comparative purposes.]

Comparing the children born in the United States and abroad of foreign-born Hebrew and Norwegian fathers, it has been found that the children born abroad make a far better showing than those born in the United States as to the proportion at school, at home, and at work. Also, the proportion for each class, with the exception of the children born abroad of foreign-born Hebrew fathers, is below that of the white children born in the United States of native fathers.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

The period of residence in this country for the heads of cases who were foreign-born may be seen in the following table:

TABLE 163.—Number and per cent of foreign-born heads of cases in the United States each specified number of years, by race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 20 or more cases, as shown in Table 148. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

[a] Not computed, owing to small number involved.

From the foregoing table it will be noted that the foreign-born heads of cases reporting years in the United States numbered 557. Of this number, 9.7 per cent have lived in the United States less than five years, 31.4 per cent less than ten years, and 55.1 per cent less than twenty years. The Hebrew and the Polish show the shortest period of residence. The Hebrew had 11.8 per cent in the United States less than five years, 60.5 per cent less than ten years, and 85.5 per cent less than twenty years. The Polish had 15.2 per cent in the United States less than five years, 57.6 per cent less than ten years, and 75.8 per cent less than twenty years. The Norwegian had 12.5 per cent in the United States less than five years, 33 per cent less than ten years, and 59.1 per cent less than twenty years. The Irish show the longest period of residence with but 7.9 per cent in the United States less than five years, 10.5 per cent less than ten years, and 23.7 per cent less than twenty years.

A similar table which follows shows the period of residence in this country of the foreign-born persons by race of individual.

Studying the years in the United States for each individual who was foreign-born, by race of individual, it will be noted that 13 per cent of the total number of foreign-born individuals reporting years in the United States have been here less than 5 years, 42.2 per cent have been here less than ten years, and 65.5 per cent less than twenty years.

The Hebrews report the highest proportion in the United States under twenty years followed by the Polish as in the previous table and the Canadian, other than French, who show 72.5 per cent in the United States less than twenty years.

ABILITY TO SPEAK ENGLISH.

The percentage of persons, foreign-born or native-born of foreign father, 6 years of age or over, belonging to the non-English-speaking races, and who speak English, is presented in the table below:

a Not computed, owing to small number involved.

Of the total number reporting, 92.2 per cent speak the English language, with 96.3 per cent of the males and 88.8 per cent of the females. Of the males native-born of foreign father, 99.3 per cent speak English and of the foreign-born, 93 per cent. Of the females native-born of foreign father, 98.6 per cent speak English and of the foreign-born 80 per cent. Among the foreign-born the lowest per cents are shown by the Polish, with 65 per cent speaking English, the Hebrew with 77.7 per cent, and the Norwegian with 86.8 per cent. Practically only one-half of the foreign-born Polish females speak English.

CITIZENSHIP.

Data relative to the citizenship of the foreign-born males who have been in the United States five years or over, and who were 21 years of age or over at the time of coming, are shown in the following table by race of individual.

It was found that 209 males applicable to this grouping had reported citizenship. Of this number 147, or 70.3 per cent, were fully naturalized and 23, or 11 per cent, had filed first papers only. Of the three races included in this table the Swedish show 96.1 per cent with first or second naturalization papers, the Norwegian 80 per cent, and Hebrew 63.1 per cent.

[a] Less than 0.05 per cent.

The total number of cases assisted reporting race of head was 1,683 and the total number of persons represented in these cases was 6,015. The head of the cases was native-born in 1,474 cases, or 87.6 per cent of the total number; and was foreign-born in 209 cases, or 12.4 per cent. Included with the native-born are 238 cases, or 14.1 per cent of the total number, in which the head was native-born of foreign father.

The races represented by 20 or more cases are as follows:

Race.	Cases.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
White, native-born of native father	855	50.8	3,177	52.8
Negro, native-born of native father	381	22.6	1,111	18.5

English, foreign-born	20	1.2	63	1.0
Irish, foreign-born	20	1.2	68	1.1

It will be noted that the greatest proportion of the assistance furnished by the society was given to the cases in which the head was white native-born of native father, represented by 855 cases, or 50.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 3,177 persons, or 52.8 per cent of the total number of persons. A much smaller proportion is shown for the other races—the negro native-born of native father having 22.6 per cent; the German native-born of foreign father, 9 per cent; German, foreign-born, 7 per cent; Irish, native-born of foreign father, 2.4 per cent; and the English, foreign-born, and Irish, foreign-born, 1.2 per cent each.

The persons involved in the cases show practically the same distribution among the different races.

The races represented by 20 or more cases have been selected for a more detailed study.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The tables following present the proportion of cases and persons involved, by race of head of case, for each class of apparent causes of need. This information may be found in more detail in General Tables 2–5, Volume II, pages 928–932.

The per cent of the total number of cases and the per cent of the total number of persons involved reporting the different classes of apparent causes of need are as follows. It must be borne in mind that one or more causes may be noted for one case, hence the same case may be counted under two or more causes and the per cents will total more than 100.

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Death or disability of breadwinner	16.6	16.2

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	75.0	79.2
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	7.5	8.7
Old age	10.0	4.9
Other	2.5	2.3

The cause showing the largest proportion of cases and persons involved is lack of employment or insufficient earnings, alone, or combined with other causes. Such a cause of need was reported in 75 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 79.2 per cent of the total number of persons.

The other classes of causes was reported in a small proportion of cases as compared with lack of employment or insufficient earnings. Death or disability of breadwinner was reported a cause of need in 16.6 per cent of the total number of cases, old age in 10 per cent, neglect or bad habits of breadwinner in 7.5 per cent, and death or disability of another member of family in 5.3 per cent. The only marked difference shown between the native and foreign born is for the cause old age, having 8.5 per cent of the native-born and 20.6 per cent of the foreign-born so reported.

AID GIVEN.

Classification of the aid given was made under ten headings,[a] and the six most important were chosen for more detailed showings.

This assistance furnished by the society is shown in the following tables, by cases and by persons involved:

Noted in the order of their importance, with the per cent of cases and per cent of persons involved, the aid given was as follows. The same case was often furnished more than one kind of assistance and will, therefore, appear under more than one heading:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.

Cash	4.6	4.4

As seen by referring to the foregoing tables, food or meals alone, or along with other assistance, were provided in 72.1 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 74.2 per cent of the total number of persons. Fuel was furnished to 57.4 per cent of the total number of cases, clothing to 50.3 per cent, medicine or medical assistance to 6.2 per cent, employment to 5.6 per cent, and cash to 4.6 per cent.

PERSONS PER CASE.

The average number of persons per case was 3.57. The cases where the head was foreign-born averaged 3.64 persons per case, the native-born of foreign father 4.06 persons, and the total native-born 3.57 persons. These figures were obtained from Table 1.

The number and per cent of cases consisting of each specified number of persons is presented in the table below:

TABLE 172.—Number and per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The total number of persons involved in the cases assisted was 1,683. Of this number 974, or 57.9 per cent, represented cases consisting of from 2 to 4 persons; 464, or 27.6 per cent, of from 5 to 8 persons; 26, or 1.5 per cent. of 9 or more persons; and 219, or 13 per cent, of but 1 person.

"TYPE" OF CASE.

In order to further study the cases they were divided into three groups, cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children, cases consisting of widow, with or without children, and cases consisting of widower, with or without children. Cases in which there are persons other than husband, wife, or children, and cases in which there is neither husband nor wife have been classified as "others."

This grouping is presented in the tables which follow:

TABLE 173.—Number of cases consisting of husband and wife, widow, or widower, with each specified number of children, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The number of cases assisted by the society consisting of husband and wife, with or without children, was 787, or 46.8 per cent of the total number. The largest proportion of cases in this group consist of husband and wife with from 3 to 5 children. The number of cases consisting of widow, with or without children, was 607, or 36.1 per cent. Of this number, 246 consisted of widow with from 1 to 2 children, and 183 consisted only of widow. The number of cases consisting of widower, with or without children, was 34, or 2 per cent, 20 cases of which consisted only of widower.

The largest proportion of cases for each race was found to consist of husband and wife, with or without children, with the exception of the negro native-born of native father. This race had 27.6 per cent consisting of husband and wife, with or without children; 2.1 per cent consisting of widower, with or without children; 48.6 per cent consisting of widow, with or without children; and 21.8 per cent classified under "others."

Owing to the proportion of cases consisting only of husband and wife, a special study was made of these cases, tabulating by age of head of case and cause of need.

A table showing the cases consisting only of husband and wife, by race of head of case, follows:

TABLE 175.—Number and per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 10 or more cases consisting only of husband and wife. The totals, however, are for all races.]

From this table we learn that 213 cases, or 12.7 per cent of the total number, consisted only of husband and wife. Of the cases in which the husband was native-born, 12.4 per cent consisted only of husband and wife, native-born of foreign father 13.9 per cent, and foreign-born 14.4 per cent. The apparent cause of need reported for the cases consisting only of husband and wife follows.

TABLE 176.—Per cent of cases consisting only of husband and wife assisted for each specified class of apparent causes of need, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The classes of apparent causes of need reported for the cases consisting only of husband and wife and the per cent of each were as follows:

	Per cent of cases.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	72.3
Disability of husband	21.1
Old age	21.1
Death or disability of another member of family	5.2
Neglect or bad habits of husband	1.4
Other	2.8

The cases in which the husband was foreign-born show a much larger proportion of cases assisted on account of old age, having 46.7 per cent so reported while the native-born have but 16.9 per cent. No such marked difference is found for any of the other causes.

Lack of employment or insufficient earnings is found to be the chief cause of need with 72.3 per cent of the cases so reporting. Disability of husband and old age is found to have been reported in 21.1 per cent of the cases.

The age of husband is shown in the following table:

Of the total number of husbands in the cases consisting only of husband and wife, 56.9 per cent were 50 years of age or over, 34.8 per cent were 60 years of age or over, and 14.6 per cent were 70 years of age or over. The majority of the husbands who were foreign-born were older than those native-born. The foreign-born Germans were 70 years of age or over in 44.4 per cent of their number. Fifty-six and six-tenths per cent of the negro native-born of native father, were 60 years of age or over, and 53.6 per cent of the white native-born of native father, were under 50 years of age.

AGE OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The number and per cent of persons involved in the cases assisted within each age group is shown in the table following.

TABLE 178.—Number and per cent of persons within each age group, by general nativity and race of head of case.

Practically one-half of the persons involved in the cases assisted were less than 16 years of age. From General Table 12, Volume II, page 943, we find that 2,602, or 43.4 per cent, were children 13 years of age or under, and that 1,116, or 18.6 per cent, were children under 6 years of age.

Of the 5,992 persons reporting age, 2,870, or 47.9 per cent, were under 16 years of age; 1,703, or 28.4 per cent, were from 16 to 39 years of age; 1,004, or 16.8 per cent, were from 40 to 59 years of age; and 415, or 6.9 per cent, were 60 years of age or over. Of the native-born, 77.4 per cent were less than 40 years of age, and of the foreign-born 68.9 per cent.

The total number of persons 20 years of age and over, involved in the cases assisted, was 2,822. Of this number, 1,757, or 62.3 per cent, were married; 900, or 31.9 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed; and 165, or 5.8 per cent, were single. Dividing them by sex, 85.1 per cent of the males and 49 per cent of the females were married, 5.3 per cent of the males and 47.3 per cent of the females were deserted, separated, or widowed, and 9.6 per cent of the males and 3.7 per cent of the females were single.

The foreign-born show the larger per cent of married and the smaller per cent of both deserted, separated, or widowed and single persons. The negroes native-born of native father, have the largest proportion (53) reported deserted, separated, or widowed.

Taking the cases in which the wife was the head of the case and reported as deserted, separated, or widowed, the following tables show the number and per cent widowed and deserted or separated:

[a] Not computed, owing to small number involved.

Of a total of 1,754 children 6 and under 16 years of age, 71.3 per cent were at school, 24.2 per cent were at home, and 4.6 per cent were at work. The children white native-born of native father make the poorest showing in this table.

YEARS IN THE UNITED STATES.

Owing to the small proportion of cases in which the head was foreign-born, the following tables will not be very satisfactory.

A table showing the years the foreign-born heads of cases have been in the United States follows:

TABLE 183.—Number and per cent of foreign-born heads of cases in the United States each specified number of years, by race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by 20 or more cases, as shown in Table 167. The total, however, is for all foreign-born.]

a Not computed, owing to small number involved.

This table indicates that a large proportion of the foreign-born heads of cases assisted by the society have been residents of the United States for twenty years or over. Of the total number reporting years in the United States, 4.2 per cent were here under five years, 13.2 per cent under ten years, and 28.6 per cent under twenty years.

Tabulating years in the United States by race of individual brings out the facts that 69.3 per cent of the total number of foreign-born persons reporting years in the United States have been here less than 20 years, 32.0 per cent less than 10 years, and 8.9 per cent less than 5 years.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

WASHINGTON.

The report for the city of Washington covers the assistance given by the Associated Charities for a period of six months from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909.

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

The number and per cent of cases and persons involved in the cases assisted by the Associated Charities of Washington, D. C., is shown in the following table by general nativity and race of head of case:

a Less than 0.05 per cent.

The total number of cases assisted reporting race of head of case was 1,556, involving 5,756 persons. By far the greater proportion of the work was among the native-born. The cases in which the head was native-born numbered 1,474, or 94.7 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 5,468 persons, or 95 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was foreign-born numbered 82, or 5.3 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 288 persons, or 5 per cent of the total number of persons. The cases in which the head was native-born of foreign father numbered 13, or 0.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 73 persons, or 1.3 per cent of the total number of persons.

The race showing the largest proportion of cases assisted is the negro native-born of native father, with 886 cases, or 56.9 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 2,987 persons, or 51.9 per cent of the total number of persons. The white native-born of native father have the next largest number of cases, having 575 cases, or 37 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 2,408 persons, or 41.8 per cent of the total number of persons.

Owing to the small number of cases in which the head was foreign-born or native-born of foreign father, only the cases in which the head was native-born of native father, white and negro, have been selected for further study. The totals, however, include all cases reporting data.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED.

The apparent cause of need was reported under fourteen different headings and grouped under five classes, as may be seen by referring to General Tables 2–5, Volume II, pages 1080–1083. The per cent of cases and persons involved reporting each class of apparent causes of need are shown in the following tables. It will be noted that the percentage for each race totals more than 100, due to the fact that more than one cause is often reported to a case.

TABLE 188.—Per cent of cases assisted for each specified class of apparent causes of need, by general nativity and race of head of case.

[This table includes only races represented by more than 20 cases, as shown in Table 187. The totals, however, are for all races.]

Total foreign-born	288	26.0	42.7	62.5	20.8	3.8	26.0

As shown by the foregoing tables, the per cent of cases and persons involved reporting each class of apparent causes of need is as follows:

	Cases.	Persons involved.
	Per cent.	Per cent.
Lack of employment or insufficient earnings	43.2	48.5
Death or disability of breadwinner	42.6	34.2
Death or disability of another member of family	34.2	42.1
Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner	21.9	25.1
Old age	7.8	4.0
Other	10.6	12.5

The cause of need most frequently reported was lack of employment or insufficient earnings alone, or along with other causes. The native-born, however, show a smaller per cent of cases reporting lack of employment or insufficient earnings than death or disability of breadwinner. Of the total number of cases where the head is white, 58.4 per cent sought assistance on account of lack of employment or insufficient earnings, and negro 38.4 per cent.

Death or disability of breadwinner, which includes accident, illness, or death of breadwinner, was the apparent cause of need in 42.6 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 34.2 per cent of the total number of persons. A greater proportion of the negroes than of whites are assisted for this class of apparent cause of need.

Death or disability of another member of family, which includes accident, illness, or death of another member of family, was the apparent cause of need in 34.2 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 42.1 per cent of the total number of persons. The negroes exceed the whites in the proportion of cases reporting this class of causes.

Neglect or bad habits of breadwinner, which includes desertion by husband, incarceration of breadwinner, intemperance of breadwinner, and neglect by breadwinner, was the apparent cause of need in 21.9 per cent of the total number of cases, with 25.1 per cent of the persons involved. This cause is reported for 26.8 per cent of the whites and 18.7 per cent of the negroes.

Old age alone, or along with other causes, is the apparent cause of need in 7.8 per cent of the total number of cases and 4 per cent of the total number of persons.

AID GIVEN.

The assistance furnished by the society is shown in the tables which follow:

A greater per cent of the native-born received medicine or medical assistance, particularly the negroes, with 54.9 per cent of cases. The greater per cent of the foreign-born received food or meals.

PERSONS PER CASE.

From Table 187 we find that the average number of persons per case was 3.70 for the total number of cases. For the foreign-born, the average number of persons per case was 3.51, and for the native-born 3.71. For the white, the average number of persons per case was 4.19 and for the negro, 3.37.

The number and per cent of cases consisting of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case, are shown in the following table:

TABLE 192.—Number and per cent of cases of each specified number of persons, by general nativity and race of head of case.

The largest proportion of the cases, or 41.3 per cent, consisted of from 2 to 4 persons. The per cent of cases consisting of from 5 to 8 persons is 31.4, of 9 or more persons 3.6 per cent, and of 1 person 23.7 per cent. The largest proportion of the foreign-born cases, or 40.2 per cent, consisted of but 1 person. The largest proportion of the cases in which the head was white native-born of native father, or 40.2 per cent, consisted of from 5 to 8 persons, and the largest proportion of cases in which the head was a negro native-born of native father, or 48.4 per cent, consisted of from 2 to 4 persons.

"TYPE" OF CASE.

A study of the cases was made as to the proportion of cases consisting of husband and wife, with or without children, widow, with or without children, and widower, with or without children. The term "widow" as used in this table includes, besides the widowed, deserted, or divorced, those wives whose husbands are residing elsewhere and unmarried mothers living with their children.

The following tables present this data:

a Not computed, owing to small number involved.

Of the 1,556 cases, 702, or 45.1 per cent, consisted of husband and wife, with or without children, the greater proportion of cases consisting of husband and wife with from 3 to 5 children. The cases consisting of widow, with or without children, numbered 395, or 25.4 per cent of the total number, with the largest proportion of this number consisting of cases with widow and 1 or 2 children. Eighty-two cases, or 5.3 per cent, consisted of widower, with or without children. Of this number 59 cases consisted of the widower alone.

Cases in which there are persons other than husband, wife, or children, and cases in which there is neither husband nor wife, have been classed under "others." Such cases numbered 377, or 24.2 per cent of the total number. Of this number 216 cases consisted of but 1 person.

Owing to the large number of cases consisting of but husband and wife, the following table is given, showing the number and per cent of the total number of cases which consist only of husband and wife:

AGE OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The proportion of persons involved in the cases assisted in each specified age group is shown in the following table, by race of head of case:

Of the 5,576 persons involved in the cases assisted, 2,673, or 47.9 per cent, are children under the age of 16. From General Table 12, Volume II, page 1092, it will be seen that 2,368 persons, or 42.5 per cent, were children 13 years of age or under, and 868, or 15.6 per cent, were children under 6 years of age.

The per cent of persons between the age of 16 and 39 was 33.9, between the age of 40 and 59 was 12.9, and 60 years of age or over was 5.2.

Fifty and seven-tenths per cent of the persons foreign-born and 47.8 per cent of the persons native-born were children under 16 years of age, and 49.3 per cent of the persons foreign-born and 52.3 per cent of the persons native-born were 16 years of age or over.

CONJUGAL CONDITION OF PERSONS INVOLVED IN CASES ASSISTED.

The conjugal condition of the persons involved in the cases assisted who were 20 years of age or over is shown in the table following, by race and sex.

TABLE 197.—Number and per cent of persons 20 years of age or over in each conjugal condition, by sex and general nativity and race of individual.

[a] Not computed, owing to small number involved.

The total number of persons 20 years of age or over reporting conjugal condition was 2,465. Of this number, 1,566, or 63.5 per cent, were married, 505, or 20.5 per cent, were deserted, separated, or widowed, and 394, or 16 per cent were single.

Comparing the males and females, 71.2 per cent of the males and 57.7 per cent of the females were married, 6.2 per cent of the males and 31.4 per cent of the females were deserted, separated, or widowed, and 22.6 per cent of the males and 10.9 per cent of the females were single.

The number and per cent of cases where the wife is the head of the case reported widowed, deserted, or separated are presented below:

Comparing the cases in which the head is a wife reported widowed, deserted, or separated with the total number of cases assisted, 289 cases, or 18.6 per cent, had the wife as head and reported widowed, and 115 cases, or 7.4 per cent, had the wife as head and reported deserted or separated. The cases in which the head was negro native-born of native father, had 21.9 per cent with a wife widowed as the head of the case, and 7.9 per cent with a wife deserted or separated, while the white native-born of native father had 14.8 per cent with a wife widowed and 6.6 per cent with the wife deserted or separated.

Practically one-fourth of the cases assisted by the society consisted of cases in which the wife was the head of the case reported widowed, deserted, or separated. Of the 404 cases so reported, 289, or 71.5 per cent, were cases in which the wife was widowed, and 115, or 28.5 per cent were cases in which the wife was deserted or separated

GENERAL OCCUPATION OF CHILDREN.

The occupation of children 6 and under 16 years of age is shown in the following table:

The total number of children involved in the cases assisted, 6 and under 16 years of age, was 1,807. Seventy-eight and five-tenths of this number were at school, 18.5 per cent were at home, and 3 per cent were at work.

Comparing the male and female, 80 per cent of the males and 77 per cent of the females were at school, 16.5 per cent of the males and 20.6 per cent of the females were at home, and 3.6 per cent of the males and 2.4 per cent of the females were at work.

HONOLULU, HAWAII.

HONOLULU.

This report covers the work of the Associated Charities of Honolulu, Hawaii, during the six months' period from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909. In order to satisfactorily present the data for Honolulu, it was necessary to modify the form of tabulation used for the cities of continental United States. It was impossible, therefore, to combine the data for Honolulu with those for the other cities included in the Commission's investigation. Instead of the nativity division followed in the reports for other cities, the following group classifications are used in the report for Honolulu:

1. Persons born in Hawaiian Islands of native (Hawaiian) father.
2. Persons born in Hawaiian Islands of father born elsewhere.
3. Persons born in continental United States of native father.
4. Persons born in continental United States of father born elsewhere.
5. Persons foreign-born. (Born in countries other than Hawaii and continental United States.)

GENERAL NATIVITY AND RACE.

A general summary showing the number of cases assisted and the number of persons involved in the cases assisted by the Associated Charities of Honolulu during the six months' period from December 1, 1908, to May 31, 1909, follows. The data are presented by general nativity and race of head of case.

During the period of the investigation 117 cases were assisted, involving 429 persons. The cases in which the head was foreign-born comprise the larger proportion assisted, with 81 cases, or 69.2 per cent of the total number, involving 330 persons, or 76.9 per cent of the total number of persons involved. There were 18 cases assisted, involving 39 persons, in which the head was born in Continental United States of native father. Twelve cases, involving 49 persons, show the head of the case born in Hawaiian Islands of Hawaiian father.

The races represented by more than 10 cases are the following:

Race of head of case.	Cases assisted.		Persons involved.
	Number.	Per cent.	Number.	Per cent.
Portuguese, foreign-born	43	36.8	217	50.6

Porto Rican, foreign-born	13	11.1	44	10.3
Hawaiian, born of Hawaiian father	12	10.3	49	11.4

As will be seen from the preceding table, the Portuguese foreign-born, is represented by the largest number of cases, involving over one-half the total number of persons. The other races represented by 10 or more cases are the white, born in continental United States of native father, the Porto Rican foreign-born, and the native Hawaiian, born of Hawaiian father.

APPARENT CAUSE OF NEED

The number and per cent of cases assisted and the number and per cent of persons involved where each specified class of apparent causes for seeking assistance was reported are shown in the following table:

TABLE 202.—Number and per cent of cases assisted and persons involved in each specified class of apparent causes of need.

As shown above, lack of employment or insufficient earnings was reported as an apparent cause in 65.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 73.7 per cent of the total number of persons; death or disability of breadwinner was reported in 33.3 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 41.5 per cent of the total number of persons; old age was reported in 17.9 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 9.1 per cent of the total number of persons; death or disability of another member of family was reported in 12.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 21.4 per cent of the total number of persons; neglect or bad habits of breadwinner was reported in 10.3 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 8.4 per cent of the total number of persons; and "other" causes was reported in 12.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 11 per cent of the total number of persons.

AID GIVEN.

The number and per cent of cases and the number and per cent of persons involved in cases given each specified aid by the society are shown in the table which follows:

Food or meals was furnished to 67.6 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 71.5 per cent of the total number of persons; clothing to 49.1 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 56.2 per cent of the total number of persons; rent to 14.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 12.7 per cent of the total number of persons; employment was secured in 13.9 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 14.1 per cent of the total number of persons; medicine or medical assistance to 7.4 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 10.2 per cent of the total number of persons; cash to 6.5 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 2.7 per cent of the total number of persons; transportation to 3.7 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 1.5 per cent of the total number of persons; lodging to 2.8 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 0.7 per cent of the total number of persons; and "other" assistance to 20.4 per cent of the total number of cases, involving 22.9 per cent of the total number of persons.

YEARS IN HAWAII.

The number of foreign-born heads of cases who have been in Hawaii each specified number of years is shown in the table which follows. This table includes heads of cases born in countries other than Hawaii and continental United States.

Of the 81 foreign-born heads of cases 42, or one-half, had been in Hawaii twenty years or more. The Portuguese are represented by 43 cases, and 34 of that number had been in Hawaii twenty years or more. Of the 81 foreign-born 16 had been in Hawaii less than five years, 19 from five to nine years, and 4 from ten to fourteen years.

STATISTICS OF PAUPERISM IN THE UNITED STATES.

PAUPERISM IN THE UNITED STATES, 1850 TO 1908.

This section of the Commission's report on "Immigrants as Charity Seekers" consists of a compilation of Federal statistics relative to pauperism in the United States from 1850 to 1908. Statistics are available from two sources, the Bureau of the Census and the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization.

The United States census first gave statistics of pauperism in 1850. That census and those of 1860 and 1870, gave, as far as ascertainable, data relative to public charitable aid including "out-door relief."[a] The census of 1880 shows only an enumeration of paupers in the public almshouses. In 1890 and in 1904 the census in addition to enumerating the inmates of public almshouses, also stated the inmates of charitable and benevolent institutions, public and private, in the United States.

The United States Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization in 1904 and again in 1908 collected and published data relative to the number of aliens in charitable institutions. These statistics are presented by race of the inmates, instead of by nationality as in the census. The Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization since 1892 has published annually the number of immigrants seeking admission to the United States and the number debarred as "paupers or likely to become a public charge."

GENERAL REVIEW OF CENSUS STATISTICS.

CENSUSES OF 1850, 1860, AND 1870. PAUPERS IN ALMSHOUSES AND PERSONS RECEIVING OUT-DOOR RELIEF.

In the census of 1850, in order to secure data relative to paupers, information was obtained from the population returns and from parish and county records.

This census and those for 1860 and 1870 are comparable, all including the number of persons receiving out-door relief as far as ascertainable. They do not include, however, those in charitable institutions, such as hospitals and dispensaries, or those in asylums for the insane, the feeble-minded, the blind, or the deaf and the dumb. The compiler in noting these facts says in 1870 that the pauperism of the afflicted class and of the inmates of such institutions is to be regarded as incident to their several disabilities or infirmities, and that while some of these persons would be paupers if they were not so afflicted, far more are only paupers because they are thus afflicted and while thus afflicted.

It is well to note also that attention is called to the fact that the immediate relief given in the ports by immigration commissioners is not considered, as the immigrant does not become a pauper until he has passed from under the control of the Commissioner of Immigration, and becomes a registered inmate of some asylum or almshouse and that, until such time, he can not be said to constitute a pauper of the city or State. The development in the idea of inclusion and exclusion of the several classes will be indicated in the discussion of the various tables.

[a] "Out-door relief," in the more general use, means the aid given to the poor outside of institutions, as, in their homes.

Tables 1, 2, and 3 give the census results for 1850, 1860, and 1870, of the paupers in public institutions, including the out-door relief reported. These tables are as follows:

Table 1. Paupers in public institutions and paupers receiving out-door relief, classified by nativity, and by States and Territories, June 1, 1850.

Table 2. Paupers in public institutions and paupers receiving out-door assistance, classified by nativity, and by States and Territories, with the total cost, June 1, 1860.

Table 3. Paupers in public institutions and paupers receiving out-door assistance, classified by nativity, and by States and Territories, with the total cost, June 1, 1870.

Censuses of 1880, 1890, and 1904. Paupers in Almshouses.

In the censuses of 1880, 1890, and 1900 no attempt was made to include statistics relative to out-door relief because of the incompleteness of the data gathered. The total out-door poor is, however, stated in 1880 and 1890 as received, but attention is called in 1890 to a single instance to show the great inaccuracy of it, namely, that the whole city of Boston only reports 13 out-door cases. The returns for 1850, 1860, and 1870 are therefore not strictly comparable with those for 1880, 1890, and 1900, which only enumerated paupers in public almshouses.

Census of 1880.

The census for 1880 furnishes figures showing the number of paupers in public almshouses on June 1, 1880. The data tabulated are shown in Table 4.

Table 4. Paupers in almshouses, classified by color, sex, nativity, and race, and by States and Territories, June 1, 1880.

Census of 1890.

The census of 1890 includes data both for almshouses and for benevolent institutions. Under almshouses are reported establishments owned and controlled by counties and towns, and even paupers permanently supported by contract with private persons are included. Hospitals for the sick and for the insane and children's homes are listed as benevolent institutions and not as almshouses. As the methods of the States differed somewhat in this, it was stated that it caused the enumerators some difficulty in following this classification. For instance, New York includes inmates of hospitals for sick and for the insane as in almshouses, which was not done by the census. On the other hand, in Wisconsin the pauper insane in county insane asylums have been included by the census in almshouses, although they are not included by the State authorities. Massachusetts classifies the children in the Marcella

Street Home as paupers which the census places under benevolent institutions. In this census no returns for paupers in public almshouses were received from Alaska, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, or Wyoming. New Mexico reports only one.

The following tables show the principal data furnished in the census of 1890:

Census of 1904.

A census of paupers in almshouses was taken December 31, 1903, and the results were published as a part of the United States Census bulletin entitled "Paupers in almshouses, 1904." In making comparisons it must be assumed that the population in 1903 was the same as in 1900.

The same general rule as in 1890 appears to have been followed in determining what are almshouses. In place of taking the previous census date of June 1, this census fixed upon December 31 as showing more accurately the normal number in the almshouses. The census for 1880 and that for 1890 gives only the number of inmates present on the census date June 1. The census of 1904 gives data also as to number admitted during the year from January 1 to December 31, 1904, and gives in addition a table accounting for discharges, deaths, and transfers. However, for purposes of comparison only the table for December 31, 1903, will be given. The other tables are published in the census bulletin for 1904, above referred to. The tables shown in the Commission's report are as follows.

Comparison of Census Figures of Paupers in Almshouses, 1850 to 1903.

As has already been stated, only a very general comparison can be made of the data shown in the census reports from 1850 to 1903, for the reason that the class of institutions included varied in the different censuses. However, the enumerations for 1850, 1860, and 1870 are comparable and the census data for 1880, 1890, and December 31, 1903, are along the same general lines.

For convenience of comparison the table which follows gives the number and ratio of paupers in public almshouses enumerated on date of census, by sex, color, and nativity, for 1850, 1860, 1870, 1880, 1890, and 1903. In the censuses of 1850, 1860, and 1870 the figures include incomplete returns for persons given out-door relief.

[a] Based upon the population of 1900.

The number of paupers per 1,000,000 population declined steadily with each census period. The number of native-born paupers per 1,000,000 native-born in the population declined more rapidly than did the number of foreign-born paupers per 1,000,000 foreign-born in the population. During the period from 1880 to 1903 the number of white paupers per 1,000,000 of the white population declined more than did the number of colored paupers per 1,000,000 of the colored population; and during the same period the number of male paupers per 1,000,000 of the male population declined but little, while the number of female paupers per 1,000,000 of the female population declined materially.

The table which follows shows the distribution, by color and nativity, of paupers enumerated in public almshouses and ratio of paupers to general population of same color and nativity, for the decennial periods 1880, 1890, and 1903.

[a] Based upon the population of 1900.

The following comment on the figures for 1903 appears in the census report:

> The figures showing the number of paupers per 100,000 population for 1903 are computed on the 1900 population, and are consequently higher than the true figures based on the actual population in 1903 would be. Therefore, they clearly indicate that the ratio is still decreasing for the native white and for the colored paupers. For the foreign-born white the ratio is much smaller than in 1880, but somewhat greater than in 1890.

It appears from the above table that the aggregate number of paupers in almhouses increased with each decade, but that the number per 100,000 population decreased materially. During the period from 1880 to 1903 the number of native-born white paupers per 100,000 of the native-born white population declined more than did the number of foreign-born white paupers per 100,000 of the foreign-born white population. During the same period the number of white paupers per 100,000 of the white population declined more than did the number of colored paupers per 100,000 of the colored population. In each of the years shown on the page following the proportion of foreign-born white paupers is much larger than the proportion of foreign-born whites in the total population.

BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS.

After the census of 1850 was taken the Superintendent of the Census reports that he perceived the weight of the objection that as no account was taken of those supported or relieved by individual charities, the statistics would not represent the whole number of paupers supported in the United States, and therefore he issued a circular in March, 1854, to the proper officers of the several States, in different sections, in order if possible to make some estimate of the private charities, benevolent associations, etc., but that the returns, though interesting, were not as numerous as desired. The data enumerated for several cities are so meager that it could not be used for this report, no information being given as to the nativity of the individuals.[a]

In the census of 1890, however, the statistics of the inmates of benevolent institutions were taken, as also again in 1903. The latter census, however, reports only the total number and gives no data as to the nativity of the inmates.

In explaining the expression "benevolent institutions," the Eleventh Census says:

> There are, among institutions devoted to works of beneficence, such as the care of the sick, of the aged, and of children, some of which receive no compensation for the service rendered other than that derived from gifts, and from the interest or endowments, or from the slight earnings of the beneficiaries. Others, for instance certain hospitals, perform such services exclusively for pay, and receive no charity cases. Others still are of a mixed character. Among the institutions here listed are undoubtedly some which are not strictly benevolent, though an effort has been made to exclude them. The list of hospitals, however, is as complete as it has been possible to make it, and includes all which were founded or are maintained by gifts or endowments, even where the patients admitted are known to pay for care and treatment. An attempt was made to expurge sanitariums and infirmaries which are private property and conducted for pecuniary profit.

This census does not include under the number of inmates of benevolent institutions, public and private, the inmates of hospitals for the insane, schools and homes for the deaf and blind, or asylums for the feeble-minded.

In the introduction to the census of 1903 for benevolent institutions is the following:

> Under the definition adopted, institutions have been considered as benevolent if supported wholly or in part by public taxation, private endowment, or subscriptions, donations, or other forms of gifts for the benefit of the sick, aged, and needy. * * * In all cases it seemed better to give the term "benevolent institutions" a broad interpretation rather than omit mention of institutional charities possessing some local importance. Under the heading "benevolent institutions" are included those in which there may be some pay patients and in which there is a combination of educational work and institutional care. Free dispensaries and so-called day nurseries have been included. Institutes for the blind and the deaf and dumb are included where they sustain a home. Inmates of almshouses and schools for feeble-minded are not included nor institutional activities confined to a brief part of the year.

[a] Compendium of United States Census 1850, "Charities."

It will be necessary in comparing the total inmates in benevolent institutions, given in 1890, with the number of 1904 to bear in mind that the latter in most tables given by the census includes institutions for the deaf, dumb, and blind, which sustain a home.

Census of 1890, Benevolent Institutions.

Tables 24 to 34 enumerate the inmates of benevolent institutions, public and private, in the United States in 1890, exclusive of inmates of prisons, hospitals for insane, almshouses, and schools and homes for the deaf, the dumb, the blind, and the feeble-minded.

The following tables are from the census report for 1890:

Table 24. Inmates of benevolent institutions, by color, nativity, race, and sex, States and Territories, and geographical divisions, June 1, 1890.

Table 25. Foreign-born white inmates of benevolent institutions, by nationality, with corresponding figures for population at large, and number of inmates to each million of population for the same race and nationality, June 1, 1890.

Table 34. Causes of dependence of inmates of benevolent institutions, by color, nativity, race, and sex, June 1, 1890.

Census of 1904, Benevolent Institutions.

The report for benevolent institutions, published by the census in 1904, gives no tables corresponding to those for 1890, showing nativity, race, or nationality of the inmates. It does give the total number of inmates and the cost of maintenance of institutions. Table 35 gives a general summary of all benevolent institutions, public and private, and exclusive of prisons, hospitals for insane, almshouses, schools for the feeble-minded, and schools and homes for the deaf and the blind, by States and Territories. It is thus comparable with the number of inmates reported in 1890. The title of the table is as follows:

Table 35. General summary of all benevolent institutions, public and private (exclusive of prisons, hospitals for insane, almshouses, schools for feeble-minded, and schools and homes for the deaf and blind), 1904.

The total number of inmates January 1, 1904, was 268,656, against 111,910, June 1, 1890. The cost of maintenance is not given in 1890, but in 1903 the total cost is given as $52,053,950, not including schools and homes for deaf and blind.

UNITED STATES BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION.

Aliens in Charitable Institutions.

In 1898 the Commissioner-General of Immigration reported that, with a view to obtaining light upon the subject of the number of immigrants in charitable institutions, inquiries had been sent to the managers of charitable, penal, and reformatory institutions. Every official, however, stated that no statistics were kept of alien criminals, paupers, or insane persons, but that they were all classed as foreigners.

In conformity with the act of March 3, 1903, the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, by means of special agents, however, collected data relative to alien inmates of all penal, charitable, and reformatory institutions in the United States. Four years later similar statistics were again gathered by the bureau. All institutions, except those for the insane, and penal and reformatory institutions, which latter included juvenile delinquents, were classified as charitable institutions. Inmates of almshouses, homes, asylums for orphans, juveniles, and feeble-minded were included.

The statistics, except for grand totals in a general way, can not be compared with the census, as they are more inclusive and are tabulated by race of people and not by nationality. The fact must be borne in mind, also, as with the census, that pay patients are included.

The following tables are from the report of the United States Bureau of Immigration for 1904.

Table 36. Aliens detained in charitable institutions, public and private, by sex, age, probable period of detention, and jurisdiction of institutions; classified also by States and Territories and by geographical divisions (charitable institutions include almshouses, homes, juvenile asylums, hospitals, institutions for the feeble-minded, and all other institutions in which people dependent upon charity are confined, except institutions for the insane), 1904.

Table 37. Aliens detained in charitable institutions, by race, sex, age, probable period of detention, and jurisdiction of institution, 1904.

Table 38. Number of years foreign-born inmates of charitable institutions have been in the United States, 1904.

The investigations made by the United States Bureau of Immigration and naturalization in 1908 show, by States, not only the number of aliens in charitable institutions, but also the number of inmates who were naturalized citizens and the number who were native-born. The tables shown are the following:

Table 39. Political condition of inmates of charitable institutions, public and private, of the United States, by nativity, States and Territories, and by geographical divisions (charitable institutions include almshouses, homes, juvenile asylums, hospitals, institutions for the feeble-minded, and all other institutions in which people dependent upon public charity are confined, except institutions for the insane), 1908.

Table 41. Per cent of foreign-born inmates of charitable institutions who have been in the United States each specified number of years, 1908.

The number of aliens in charitable institutions increased during the four-year period from 15,396 in 1904 to 19,572 in 1908.

DEBARRED AND DEPORTED IMMIGRANTS.

The United States Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization since 1892 has reported the number of intended immigrants refused admission to the United States, among other reasons, as paupers or persons likely to become public charges. The bureau also reports the number of immigrants deported after landing. Data relative to debarred and deported immigrants from the reports of the United States Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization have been compiled and are shown in the tables which follow:

Table 42. Number of aliens debarred at seaports and number deported after landing, fiscal years 1892 to 1910.

Table 43. Number of aliens refused admission from contiguous foreign territory, fiscal years 1900 to 1910.

[a] The percentages are calculated on the total basis of 69,981 reported, omitting 3,064 not stated.

Owing to the fact that the average age of the foreign-born is higher than that of the other groups, the percentage of single paupers in that element of the population is correspondingly less. On the other hand, the largest percentage of the single is among natives with both parents foreign. The percentage of single among the negroes is less than among the native whites. The percentage of widows is much larger among the foreign paupers than in any other group.

[a] The figures showing assigned causes of pauperism do not, when added, form the total number of paupers, for the reason that many paupers may be classed under more than one of these subdivisions; the same person may be a tramp, a drunkard, crippled, old and infirm, and rheumatic.

Columns 5 and 6: For each person 10 years of age or over, enter "Y" or "N" to indicate whether the person can read or write any language. Column 7: Enter "Y" or "N" to indicate whether the person can speak English. Column 8: Enter for each member of household the occupation or work done; enter "housewife" for wife who does usual housework, "at school" for children attending school, "at home" for persons without employment.

Columns 9 and 10: Enter for each person country of birth and race. Owing to the diversity of races in various countries, the Immigration Commission in its investigations particularly desires to secure all data by race (or people) as well as by country of birth. The following list shows the countries from which most immigrants come and the principal races coming from each country. The list is not complete in either respect, but it is sufficiently comprehensive to guide those using it. Other countries and other races should be enumerated when such other countries and races are reported. Enter "American" only for those whose father was born in the United States and who do not belong to one of the following races: American Indian, Chinese, Hindu, Japanese, Korean, Negro, which under all circumstances should be designated by race. For persons born in the United States of foreign father, enter race of father with word "American," as "German-American," "Hebrew-American," "Croatian-American," etc. In case of mixed parentage, follow race of father.
